

TRANSACTIONS
OF THE
ROYAL HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Society as a body is not responsible for the opinions advanced in the following pages

TRANSACTIONS
OF THE
ROYAL HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Third Series.

VOL. IX.

LONDON
OFFICES OF THE SOCIETY

22 RUSSELL SQUARE, W.C.

1915

CONTENTS

	PAGE
PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS. By Professor C. H. FIRTH, LL.D., F.B.A., President. (Delivered February 18, 1915)	1

Choice of an Address influenced by current events—Historical associations of the War—Continuity of the international relations between England and Flanders—Mediæval political alliances against France—Close economic connection between England and the Netherlands—New era in these international relations after the Reformation—Queen Elizabeth's policy towards the Protestants in the Low Countries—Policy of the Stuarts towards the Dutch States—Religious sympathies and commercial rivalry between England and Holland—Map of Holland and Belgium by Treaties, 1678-1815—The Barrier fortresses in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries—Result of the Napoleonic war—Treaty of Paris and Congress of Vienna—Independence of Belgium in 1830—Guaranteed and maintained down to 1914.

THE DESPENSER WAR IN GLAMORGAN. By J. CONWAY DAVIES, M.A., F.R.Hist.S. (Read November 19, 1914)	21
---	----

Historical significance of these hostilities—Interest of Despenser in the Gloucester estates—Intrigues following their partition—Despenser's ambitious designs in South Wales—Despenser's designs upon the honour of Gower—William de Brewosa, lord of Gower—Seizure of his barony by Mowbray—Despenser's intervention in the disputed succession to Gower—Disturbances in the Marches—Further causes of hostility to Despenser—Preparations for hostilities on both sides—The Earl of Hereford's protest—Operations of the Lords Marchers in Glamorgan—General sympathy with the barons against Despenser—Destruction of Despenser's property—The King takes possession of the disputed lands—Charges against the Despensers—Their exile and the royalist reaction—Results of the Despenser war.

- A PROVINCIAL ASSEMBLY DURING THE LEAGUE By MAURICE WILKINSON, Esq., M A., F R.Hist S. (Read December 10, 1914). 65

Burgundy and the League—Causes of opposition in the province—Royalist parlement at Flavigny—Strength of the League at Dijon—Administrative machinery of the province—Meeting of the Estates in 1590—Procedure of the royalist parlement—The leaguer parlement—Analysis of the rival bodies—Real strength of the royalist faction—Due to the traditional unity of the French nation in face of foreign danger.

- THE ERRORS OF LORD MACAULAY IN HIS ESTIMATION OF THE SQUIRES AND PARSONS OF THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY. By the Rev P H. DITCHFIELD, M A., F S A., F R Hist S. (Read May 20, 1915) 77

The new edition of Macaulay's History—The charm of the 'History'—Macaulay's estimate of the squires and parsons challenged—The historian's political prejudices—His presentment of the seventeenth-century squire—Refutation of Macaulay's conclusions—Evidence of the Sitwell and Sacheverell papers—The squire's work as a builder—and gardener—His average income—His visits to London—Provincialisms—His education—His books—His love of sport and ale—Macaulay's depreciation of the country ladies—His attitude towards the religious parties—Caricature of the seventeenth-century parson—His means of living and prospects—Contemporary opinion of the country clergy—'Josselin's Diary'—The careers of parsons' children—Clerical libraries—Conclusion as to the justice of Macaulay's indictment—Its political motives—Opinion of the Quarterly Review

- MUNICIPAL ADMINISTRATION IN THE SPANISH DOMINIONS IN AMERICA By F A KIRKPATRICK, M A., F R.Hist.S. 95

Extent of the Spanish Settlements in South America (1574)—Survey of Venezuela in 1764—Features of these surveys—Scheme of civil administration in the seventeenth century—Colonizing and town-planning—Town legislation—Municipal officers—The Cabildo—Provincial examples—Effect of the Bourbon régime—Mediæval elements—The position of Chile—Cabildo and Junta in 1806.

