Law
Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

Cambridge have an established and ever expanding academic law list in public and private law subjects crossing books and journals aimed at a global readership.

Particular strengths lie in international law, human rights and transitional justice, transnational and comparative law, jurisprudence, and legal history.

We also publish a growing number of titles with an inter-disciplinary and socio-legal approach.

BIICL PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The demand for our work in a constantly changing world is growing and is limited only by our resources. We rely heavily on funding from law firms, corporations, international bodies, foundations, individuals and others. By supporting our work, donors and funders have an opportunity to make a positive and lasting difference around the world whilst raising their profile with our global network of legal practitioners, academics, in-house counsel, government officials, NGOs and students.

- BIICL Fund: Shaping our Future
  This Fund provides an opportunity for members and friends to make unrestricted donations, enabling us to expand our team, refurbish our premises and promote our work to a wider audience. It also gives us the flexibility to respond more quickly to global events and to embark on projects or recruitment without waiting for funding.

- Funding for Research Fellowships
  We are very grateful to the Vivmar Foundation, the Dorset Foundation and to Herbert Smith Freehills LLP for their ongoing support for Senior Research Fellowships. We are currently seeking funding for further research fellowships. Please see details on our website.

- The Bingham Appeal
  The Bingham Centre for the Rule of Law was launched in 2010 and for the promotion and enhancement of the rule of law worldwide. We are aiming to raise £5million by 2020 to fund the Centre’s growing network of talented research fellows and portfolio of applied research projects.

- The Arthur Watts Appeal
  The Arthur Watts Senior Research Fellowship in Public International Law was founded in memory of the late Sir Arthur Watts, one of the leading international lawyers of his generation. The establishment of the Fellowship has been made possible by the generosity of numerous benefactors.

- Research Projects
  Our core funders may also choose to support a specific research project in an area of interest to them. This could be any subject which has an international and comparative law or rule of law focus and can be global, regional or sector specific.

- Internship programmes
  BIICL is fortunate to have the assistance of high quality interns from all over the world, and is seeking funding for a number of internships in all areas of BIICL’s work.

Events and Sponsorship

BIICL runs a dynamic and topical programme of events throughout the year. Our events attract high profile speakers, many of whom are leaders in their field. Events are generally open to all BIICL members and the public. Sponsorship is available for many of our events including conferences, lectures, dinners and seminars in the UK and overseas.

WAYS TO GIVE

- The Gift Aid scheme allows BIICL to claim an additional 25p for each pound donated by UK taxpayers (including LLPs).
- US donors can donate via The International Rule of Law Project Inc. (IROLP), founded by supporters of BIICL and the Bingham Centre for the Rule of Law, and a 501 (c) 3 public charity in the US. For further information, please visit www.irolp.org.
- In the UK, a legacy in your will in favour of BIICL means that the value of your gift will be deducted from your estate before Inheritance Tax is calculated.
- Gifts of publicly quoted shares, exempt from capital gains tax liability, enable donors to claim tax relief on the current value of the shares making such gifts extremely tax-efficient.
- Gifts in kind such as printing services or venues and catering help BIICL to keep overheads low. If you might be able to help in this way, please contact our Development office.
BIICL ALUMNI NETWORK

The new BIICL Alumni Network enables all those who have spent time working at BIICL over its long history to reconnect with colleagues and keep up to date with BIICL news. Whether your connection to BIICL was as a research fellow, staff member, volunteer or intern, by joining the Alumni Network, you can attend events, participate in online discussions, reach business and academic contacts and share accomplishments.

The Steering Group is responsible for developing the activities of the Network which includes fundraising activities, the alumni newsletter, social media communications and alumni events. If you are interested in joining any of these groups or have ideas you would like to contribute, please let us know.

There is also an online directory of Alumni Network members on the BIICL website which lists members’ contact details and current work or academic activities. This directory is only available to Alumni Network members so please get in touch if you would like to join the Network and be listed in the directory.

We have introduced a specially discounted BIICL Alumni membership rate. For the first year of BIICL membership, alumni can join our diverse community of judges, practicing lawyers, government officials, international civil servants, academics and students for the special annual rate of just £70. Among the benefits of joining BIICL, is the offer of 40% discount off all Institute events including CPD courses which can be booked online. Additionally, you will have online access to the ICLQ archive.

For any queries, please contact the Alumni Network team.

BIICL Activities

- BIICL Forums
  - The Institute enhances its research activities through three specialist forums:
    - The Investment Treaty Forum
    - The Competition Law Forum
    - The Product Liability Forum
  - These invitation only discussion and working groups bring together senior experts to share experiences and exchange opinions, contribute to policy initiatives, and promote research in these important areas of law and practice.
- Training and Development
  - BIICL engages in a range of research-related and practical training and development activities. We run annual intensive short courses.

The Bingham Centre for the Rule of Law

The Bingham Centre was launched in 2010. It is named after The Rt Hon Lord Bingham of Cornhill KG who promoted the maintenance and development of the rule of law. The Centre is devoted to the study and promotion of the rule of law worldwide, defining and implementing the rule of law as a universal and practical concept that upholds respect for human dignity and enhances economic development and political stability.

BIICL Membership

Become a member today

Become a BIICL member and join an influential global network of scholars and practitioners concerned with analysing on-going problems and current developments in international law. BIICL members come from a diverse range of backgrounds including judges, practising lawyers, government officials, regulators, international civil servants, academics and students.

We offer three categories of Individual Membership: Full-time Student, Full-time Academic and Individual. Membership benefits include 40% discount on Institute events (CPD accredited where applicable), 40% discount on Institute publications and access to the International and Comparative Law Quarterly (ICLQ) archive. Corporate membership is available with a similar range of benefits to law firms, chambers, companies, not-for-profit organisations, universities and institutions in the UK.

We also offer Online International membership, exclusively for those resident outside the UK. Membership benefits include 30% discount on Institute events, 40% discount on all BIICL publications and online access to the ICLQ archive.

Authors of accepted articles in International & Comparative Law Quarterly now have the option to publish on a Gold Open Access basis.

Cambridge Journals Online:
For further information about this journal please go to the journal web site at: cambridge.org/ICLQ
When founded in 1952, the International and Comparative Law Quarterly was the only journal which offered the reader coverage of comparative law as well as public and private international law as well as European Union law. Since then it has maintained its pre-eminence amongst journals of its kind and it continues to offer practitioners and academics wide topical coverage without compromising rigorous editorial standards.

Membership of the British Institute of International and Comparative Law brings with it a subscription to the International and Comparative Law Quarterly, or it is available as a personal annual subscription from the distributor Cambridge University Press.
