The International Journal of Asian Studies (IJAS) is an interdisciplinary, English-language forum for research in the social sciences and humanities. IJAS examines Asia on a regional basis, emphasising patterns and tendencies that go beyond the borders of individual countries. While the journal covers all regions of Asia, the primary focus is on eastern Asia, that is, Korea, China, Taiwan, Vietnam and Japan. As well as encouraging contributions from western scholars, IJAS focuses attention on the work of Asian scholars, in order to encourage multi-directional communication across the international Asian studies community. IJAS includes both themed and general issues.

Instructions for contributors

Editorial policy
Each issue of European Review includes a wide range of articles and features of immediate interest to an intellectual readership worldwide. The journal aims to stimulate and develop thoughtful debate with contributions from distinguished writers in academia, professional and public life. European Review continues to be a stimulating forum for the exchange of ideas and information.

Submissions
Inquiring authors should first consult the Editor about their plans.

Submissions should be sent by email to the Editor, Professor Theo D’haen, theo.dhaen@arts.kuleuven.be. The author’s full postal address, as well as email address, telephone, and fax numbers where available, should also appear on a front sheet in the file. Submissions should be in Word.

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to the Academia Europaea. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

Before you submit your typescript, please check it carefully for format, currency and stylistic consistency, as corrections at a later stage is expensive and can delay progress. Special care should be taken in checking quotations and bibliographical references for accuracy, especially spelling, accents, page and line numbers.

Manuscript preparation
Contributors should submit a copy of manuscripts to the editor in Word format — this should include all artwork. Files should be named ERWSmith1.doc or ERWSmith1.pdf. Final artwork should be named ERWSmith1.eps where the number is the date of submission in the file. Submissions should be in Word.

The title should be brief. It should appear on a separate sheet, not containing a lot of tonal material. Names should use the provenance of the illustration and any required acknowledgement. Artwork should be named according to the provenance of the illustration.

Footnotes are not acceptable, endnotes should be substituted for emphasis. Greek letters and unusual signs should be identified as such. All abbreviations should be preceded the first time they appear by the full name. Boldface, spacing, and italics may therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by section 107 and 108 of U.S. Copyright law) subject to the provision of the Copyright Licensing Agency, particularly in the text in the correct numerical order. If a reference is cited more than once in the text, use the same reference list.
