NOTES FOR AUTHORS

Aims and Scope

established to print media (example: full data sets, movie or sounds files...). It may be submitted for online-only publication. Please see full details (“Instructions for Contributors”) at journals.cambridge.org/ber.

Technical and Nomenclature Standards

All work should be in US units as standard. Anatomical terms can be a mixture of the English vernacular and Latin, depending on current usage.

Manuscript Preparation

We kindly ask that you follow the instructions below when preparing your manuscript for submission. This will minimize the risk of errors being introduced during the publishing process.

Use double-line spacing and ample margins (at least 2.5 cm) on each side.

Do not underline anything.

Number every line consecutively across the pages of the manuscript, rather than within pages.

Do not indent the start of each paragraph.

Use italics for taxonomic nomenclature and bold for headings, illustrations give the same information. They can either be submitted as separate files in TIFF or EPS format but captions should be listed at the end of the manuscript text.
