Cambridge Archaeological Journal

Published for the McDonald Institute for Archaeological Research

Editor

John Robb, University of Cambridge, UK

The Cambridge Archaeological Journal (CAJ) is the leading journal for cognitive and symbolic archaeology. It provides a forum for innovative archaeological research and theoretical discussion, with particular focus on the role and development of human symbolic capacities, beliefs and practices. Area coverage is world-wide, and CAJ covers the entire span from human origins to recent history. Specific topics covered in recent issues include: the use of cultural neurophenomenology for the understanding of Maya religious belief, agency and the individual, new approaches to rock art and shamanism, the significance of prehistoric monuments, ritual behaviour on Pacific Islands, and body metamorphosis in prehistoric boulder artworks. In addition to major articles and shorter notes, the Cambridge Archaeological Journal includes special topical sections and review features on significant recent books. The journal has a distinguished international editorial board of scholars of wide repute.

Greece & Rome

Published for The Classical Association

Editors

John Taylor, Tonbridge School, UK
Vedia Izzet, University of Southampton, UK
Robert Shorrock, Eton College, UK

Published with the wider audience in mind, Greece & Rome features informative and lucid articles on ancient history, art, archaeology, religion, philosophy, and the classical tradition. Although its content is of interest to professional scholars, undergraduates and general readers who wish to be kept informed of what scholars are currently thinking will find it engaging and accessible. All Greek and Latin quotations are translated.

A subscription to Greece & Rome includes a supplement of New Surveys in the Classics. These supplements have covered a broad range of topics, from key figures like Homer and Virgil, to subjects such as Greek tragedy, thought and science, women, comedy, slavery, and Roman religion. The next New Survey will be on Ancient Epigram by Gideon Nisbet and Niall Livingstone.

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the languages, literature, and civilisations of ancient Greece and Rome. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and co-operation among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference, and it sponsors branches all over the country which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

The Classical Association has about 3,500 members. Members receive the Presidential Address once a year and a newsletter, CA News, twice a year. They may also subscribe at substantially reduced cost to the Classical Association journals Classical Quarterly, Classical Review, and Greece & Rome.

For more information and a membership application form please contact the Secretary, The Classical Association, 44 Park House, 15–23 Greenhill Crescent, Watford WD18 8PH (tel. 01923 239300, e-mail: office@classicalassociation.org). The Secretary can also give information about the reduced journal subscription rates, and about the Association's other occasional publications.

THE CLASSICAL QUARTERLY

The Classical Quarterly has a reputation for publishing the highest quality classical scholarship for over 100 years. It publishes research papers and short notes in the fields of language, literature, history, and philosophy. Two substantial issues of The Classical Quarterly appear each year, in May and December. Given the quality and depth of the articles published in The Classical Quarterly, any serious classical library needs to have a copy on its shelves.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board.

FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests.
