Studies Review

Religious

A publication like Religious Studies Review has been needed for a long time in our field. We now have in the Review a thoroughly responsible organ dedicated to reviewing the critical books in the field of religion and related disciplines—it is high time and many of us are very, very grateful for it.

Sally McFague, Dean, Vanderbilt Divinity School

Religious Studies Review is a sign of maturity in the discipline, and a guide to the wealth of resources now available. Its scholarly approach and critical stance provide perspective in an area tempted to live beyond its means.

*Joseph C. McLelland, Dean, Faculty of Religious Studies
McGill University*

Religious Studies Review dramatically documents the extent to which American scholarship in religion has come of age after having achieved corporate self-consciousness only so recently. In the Review Essays each issue of RSR bristles with material relevant for anyone concerned with religious studies in its wider scope, while the Notes on Recent Publications, organized according to topic areas, provide prompt contact with the stream of books and monographs that continue to emerge from presses throughout the world. The listing of recently completed Dissertations in Religion is an added bonus.

*Robert A. Kraft, Chairperson, Department of Religious Studies
University of Pennsylvania*

I have become an enthusiastic, regular reader of Religious Studies Review. It keeps me abreast of scholarly developments and current literature in my own and in other fields in a helpful, readable way.

*Robert T. Handy, Academic Dean and Professor of Church History
Union Seminary, New York, and Adjunct Professor of Religion
Columbia University*

CHARLES AVILA

"Charles Avila's important retrieval of patristic texts reminds us that the 'option for the poor' is not a new theological fad, but an ancient Christian legacy." —JOE HOLLAND

Of War and Love

DOROTHEE SOLLE

"Of War and Love is a book like a banner, a book like a broadsheet. Dorothee Solle is that rare human: a theologian who is not afraid to be loud and faithful and lucid about unmentionable topics. Her theology is an outcry against Death the Unmentionable, i.e., against nuclear war and the ills that make the final illness inevitable. So crying out, she helps us render death vincible—a rare and holy deed, a liturgy on behalf of all."

—DANIEL BERRIGAN, S.J.
192 pages Paper $7.95

Option for the Poor A Hundred Years of Vatican Social Teaching

DONAL DORR

Donal Dorr carefully examines the social teaching of the Catholic Church over the past hundred years in order to find out what Church leaders have to say about poverty and social injustice. He makes a thorough and balanced study of the teaching of popes, councils and synods—and shows that the notion of an 'option for the poor' has a solid traditional basis.

Option for the Poor is an original, balanced and timely study which gets behind the prejudices of current controversy about liberation theology.

Zygon represents a unique attempt to address problems concerning the meaning and purposes of human life in terms of contemporary scientific understandings. At a time when "facts" and "values" have become dangerously disjoined, Zygon seeks a symbiotic unification of the two, a "yoking" (zygon) necessary if human civilization is to survive and evolve in a scientific-technological age.

The Sons of the Gods and the Daughters of Men

An Afro-Asiatic
Interpretation of Genesis 1-11

MODUPE ODUYOYE

Oduyoye knows the rules of biblical criticism set down by the scholars of Europe and North America, and he draws upon them to good effect. Yet when he chooses to read the Hebrew Bible through the eyes of African creation myth and with the tongue of the Hamitic language group, the effect is extraordinary. "Oduyoye persuasively shows that the exquisite sensitivity of African religion to the realm of the spirit is a living witness to a biblical consciousness much richer and more pluralistic than we had realized."

The Idols of Death and the God of Life: A Theology

PABLO RICHARD, et al.

"There is a seismic shift taking place in the foundations of theology, and its epicenter is Latin America. Liberation theology is no fad, but a revolution in the very terms of theological work. Even where their way is not our way, we need to listen to what they have learned. These essays make an excellent listening-post."—DR. WALTER WINK
