

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2006 History of Economics Society Annual Meeting: The thirty-third annual conference of the History of Economics Society will be held June 23–26, 2006 at Grinnell College, Iowa. For more information, including on-line proposal submission, please consult the conference website: <http://eh.net/HE/HisEcSoc/carchive/HES2006/index.shtml>. You may also contact Bradley W. Bateman at Department of Economics, Grinnell College, Grinnell, IA 50112.

Call for Papers, ESHET 2006: The 2006 conference of the European Society for the History of Economic Thought will be held April 28–30, 2006 at the University of Porto, Portugal. The theme of the Conference is The Popularisation of Economic Ideas. For more information, please contact the conference organizers via email at eshet_porto@fep.up.pt, or by post at ESHET 2006, Faculdade de Economia do Porto, Rua Roberto Frias, 4200–464 Porto, Portugal, or by fax at +351 22 5505050. See www.eshet.net for more information.

Young Scholars Seminar at ESHET 2006: ESHET invites four young scholars to present and discuss their work at the Young Scholars Seminar that will be held during the Conference. The Society will take care of their board, accommodation and registration fees for the whole conference and of their travel expenses up to 200 €. Each young scholar will have 30 minutes to present his/her paper and a senior scholar, appointed by the ESHET Council, will discuss it. The candidates must E-mail a paper no longer than 9,000 words to the Chair of the ESHET Council, prof. Cosimo Perrotta (cosimo.perrotta@ateneo.unile.it), by March 10, 2006. The results of the selection process will be communicated to the candidates by March 30, 2006.

Conference Announcement: The 2006 History of Political Economy Conference (HOPE 2006) on “Life Writing in Economics” will be held April 7–9, 2006 at Duke University, Durham, NC. For further information, please contact Evelyn L. Forget, Community Health Sciences, Faculty of Medicine, University of Manitoba, 750 Bannatyne Ave., Winnipeg MB CANADA R3E 0W3 (forget@cc.umanitoba.ca) or E. Roy Weintraub, Department of Economics, Duke University, Box 90097, Durham NC, 27708-0097 USA (erw@econ.duke.edu).

AISPE 2006: The Ninth Conference of the Italian Association for the History of Economic Thought (AISPE) will be held on June 15–17, 2006 at the University of Padova, Padua, Italy. The theme of the conference is “The Theory and Practice of Economic Policy: Tradition and Change,” and its aim is to present original research on the evolution of economic policy, from its first theoretical statements right through to the most recent proposals and practices. For further information, please contact Gianfranco Tuset by email at gianfranco.tuset@unipd.it, or by mail to him at Department of Economics, Via del Santo, 33 - 35123 Padova (Italy). Information about the Conference is also posted on the Conference website: www.decon.unipd.it/aispe.

Call for Papers, 2006 INEM Conference: The next International Network for Economic Method (INEM) conference will be held at Grinnell College, Iowa, USA, June 22–23, 2006, immediately prior to the HES conference. For more information, please contact Roger Backhouse, Chair, INEM, University of Birmingham at R.E.Backhouse@bham.ac.uk. For further information on INEM, please consult www.econmethodology.org.

Call for Papers, GMU Summer Institute: The 7th annual Summer Institute for the Preservation of the History of Economics will be held at George Mason University, July 10–15, 2006. The Institute offers a forum for students to present research, work in progress or more polished papers, to a lively audience. Past speakers include Brad Bateman, James Buchanan, Dave Colander, Dan Hammond, Samuel Hollander, Deirdre McCloskey, Phil Mirowski, Warren Samuels and Roy Weintraub. We have commitments from James Buchanan, Steve Medema and William Coleman to speak this year. We are especially interested in participation by upper level undergraduates and graduate students in economics or related disciplines. The department of economics at George Mason and the History of Economics Society enables us to subsidize such student participation up to the amount of $500. We welcome proposals on any topic, and are particularly interested in Democracy, institutions, and economic policy; Language, evolution and trade; Malthus, Malthusians and anti-economics; Hayek and the liberal tradition; Religion and beliefs; Buchanan and Rawls; Philosophy and public choice. As in past years, the Institute will be supported by the Earhart Foundation. Much of the support is used to recompense speakers for their participation in the Institute. This year we have obtained additional funding to have one extra day and a final dinner for the conference, on Saturday July 15. Conference events also include good coffee and continental breakfasts, lunches, as well as one or two working dinners. Additional information about the Institute can be found at http://www.gmu.edu/centers/publicchoice/SummerInstitute/si_index06.htm. Please send paper proposals and suggestions for students who might be interested in attending (by 28 Feb.), to speart@bw.edu and DavidMLevy@gmail.com.

Call For Papers, ECHE 2006: The eleventh annual European Conference on the History of Economics will take place at the Ecole normale supérieure de Cachan, Cachan, France, on 19–21 October 2006. The theme of the conference is “Economics and Place, and the purpose of the conference is to explore the geographies of economics throughout time. Requests for information should be sent by e-mail to Philippe Fontaine at fontaine@ecogest.ens-cachan.fr. For updated information on the conference please visit the ECHE website at: <http://www.eche.eu.com/>.

Conference Announcement, HOPE 2007: The 2007 History of Political Economy Conference (HOPE 2007) will have as its theme, “Keeping the Faith: Religious Belief and Political Economy.” The conference will be held in late April 2007 at Duke University, Durham, NC. For further information, please go to <http://eh.net/pipermail/hes/2005-July/003117.html>, or contact Bradley Bateman at Dept. of Economics, Grinnell College, Grinnell, IA 50112-1690 (bateman@grinnell.edu) or Spencer Banzhaf at Resources for the Future, 1616 P Street NW, Washington, DC 20036 (banzhaf@rff.org).