Editorial Policy. Antarctic Science provides a focus for many of the interdisciplinary interests that characterize Antarctic studies. The journal includes both synthesis and data papers, opinion papers, short notes on technical developments and field work, an editorial and book reviews. Antarctic Science is a journal that is interesting, original and topical yet rigorous in its treatment of primary scientific data. There is no maximum page length for scientific papers. Authors are required to follow the style set out in ‘Instructions for Contributors’ accessible either as a pdf at journals.cambridge.org/ans or through http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cup/antsci where all manuscripts must be submitted.
