The objects of the Society are the furtherance of classical studies in general, and in particular the discussion and publication of critical researches into the languages, literature and civilization of Greece and of Rome.

Any classical scholar is eligible for membership. The subscription of a member resident in Cambridge is £1. 1s. annually, and of a member resident elsewhere, 12s. 6d. annually. Members receive notices of all meetings of the Society and copies of its publications.

Any library may subscribe to the Society and receive copies of its publications. The subscription for libraries is £1. 1s. annually.

The Society is responsible for two series of publications.

Proceedings of the Cambridge Philological Society, containing papers read to the Society and other articles by members, appears annually. Contributions intended for the Proceedings should be addressed to Dr J. Diggle, Queens' College, Cambridge.

Supplements to the Proceedings, consisting of monographs, are an occasional series appearing less frequently and at irregular intervals. This series is designed to accommodate works of intermediate size, i.e. of about 100 pages. Members of the Society are invited to submit proposals for monographs to be published in this series; proposals should be addressed to Dr J. T. Killen, Jesus College, Cambridge.

Applications for membership, and all other correspondence relating to the Society, should be addressed to Dr J. T. Killen, Jesus College, Cambridge.
