Persistence of cognitive impairment and its negative impact on psychosocial functioning in lithium-treated, euthymic bipolar patients: a 6 year follow-up study – CORRIGENDUM

In our recently published study (Mora et al. 2012) a heading in Table 3 page 1193 is incorrect.

The column headed “Executive Function” sub heading “∆ Forward span” should read

“Executive Function” sub heading “∆ Backward span”

The authors apologize for this error.
