

---

---

from Cambridge

The Agrarian History of England and Wales

General Editor: H. P. R. FINBERG

Volume IV: 1500-1640

Edited by JOAN THIRSK

The first volume of a vast project of cooperative scholarship which will cover the entire social and economic history of rural England and Wales. Illustrated by photographs, plans, maps and tables. A statistical appendix gives prices for all the chief agricultural commodities. xi + 919 pp. $25.00

The Cambridge Economic History of Europe

Vol. I: The Agrarian Life of the Middle Ages

Second Edition

Edited by M. M. POSTAN

A completely reset edition of Volume I in which only the material in Chapters I, IV, V and VI and in sections 4, 5 and 8 of Chapter VII remains unchanged. $14.00

Vol. IV: The Economy of Expanding Europe in the 16th and 17th Centuries

Edited by E. E. RICH and C. H. WILSON

This new volume is concerned with the European contribution to the world situation. It deals with population, currency, labor shortage, scientific achievements, agricultural development and commercial organization. $14.50

Vol. VI: The Industrial Revolutions and After

Edited by H. J. HABAKKUK and M. POSTAN

Published in two parts, this volume covers the rise and development of the modern industrial system. Its terminal date is mid-twentieth century. Chapters on the United States and the Far East are included. Vol. VI, 2 parts $19.50

The Land Boomers

MICHAEL CANNON

The story of the big land boom in the expanding colony of Victoria in the 1880's, possibly the most concentrated example in history of the laissez-faire 'boom-and-bust' economy, and the catastrophic depression that followed. Contemporary cartoons and photographs. Published for Melbourne University Press. $13.50

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022

---

---

BOSTON CAPITALISTS AND WESTERN RAILROADS

A Study in the Nineteenth-Century Railroad Investment Process
By ARTHUR M. JOHNSON and BARRY E. SUPPLE

This study shows that the great fund of capital and techniques applied by Boston merchants to Western ventures had important consequences for American economic growth. The authors provide a new perspective on the process of investment decision-making in the 19th century. Harvard Studies in Business History, 23. $10.00

COTTON KINGDOM OF THE NEW SOUTH

A History of the Yazoo Mississippi Delta from Reconstruction to the Twentieth Century
By ROBERT L. BRANDFON

During the crucial years of the Reconstruction, the Yazoo Mississippi Delta was selected as a prime site for establishing an agricultural efficiency to benefit the entire southern economy. In this detailed study, Mr. Brandfon examines the profound economic, political, and social consequences of the Delta's ultimate prosperity amidst the poverty of surrounding areas. $6.95

HARVARD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

---

Scottish Journal of Political Economy

VOL. XIV

FEBRUARY 1967

NO. 1

CONTENTS

- The Moral Justification of Free Enterprise ..... A. L. Macfie
- Investment Incentives and the 1965 Finance Act:
Regional Implications ..... *W. Black, N. Cuthbert
and J. V. Simpson*
- Manufacturing Employment, Growth and Labour Supply ..... F. Walton
- Activity Rates of the Population of Great Britain 1951-1964 .... P. Galambos
- Adam Smith and the Biographer ..... S. G. Checkland
- Growth and Fluctuations in the British Building Industry ..... D. I. MacKay

The SCOTTISH JOURNAL OF POLITICAL ECONOMY is published in February, June and November, and is free to members of The Scottish Economic Society. Applications for membership should be made to The Treasurer, Scottish Economic Society, 144 St. Vincent Street, Glasgow, C.2., enclosing the annual subscription of 35/-. The Journal may also be obtained by non-members by ordering through any bookseller or direct from the publisher, Oliver & Boyd, Tweeddale Court, Edinburgh, 1, price 12/6d. per single copy.

Medieval and Renaissance Pistoia

The Social History of an Italian Town, 1200-1430

by David Herlihy

To what extent were the literary and artistic splendors of the early Renaissance accompanied by economic and social improvements? David Herlihy seeks answers to this and other questions within the framework of the history of Pistoia, a small Tuscan town near Florence, whose records are uniquely complete for the period. $10.00

The Indus Rivers

A Study of the Effects of Partition

by Aloys A. Michel

This study analyzes the profound effects which the Partition of the Punjab has had on the regional economy and organization of the sub-continental portion of the Indus Basin. Mr. Michel assesses the projects under way in India and West Pakistan since Partition, and also the engineering techniques being employed in an effort to restore the efficiency of the old, integrated irrigation system. $12.50

Ironmaker to the Confederacy

Joseph R. Anderson and the Tredegar Iron Works

by Charles B. Dew

In a definitive treatment of the impact of industry on the outcome of the Civil War, the author shows that Richmond's Tredegar Iron Works reflected, and to a large degree shaped, the fortunes of the South. "Details of finance and supply, labor troubles, material shortages, military-civilian rivalries become fascinating in the author's hands."—New York Times Book Review. $10.00

International Aid to Thailand

The New Colonialism?

by Ronald C. Nairn

The author attributes the failure of two international aid projects in Thailand to attitudes and methods which differed little from the earlier efforts of colonial powers. Among the factors he finds to have contributed to the ineffectiveness of efforts to impart Western skills and ideas are the technicians' virtual lack of Thai language training and poor preparation for the cultural and physical climate. $6.50 available through your bookstore

Yale University Press
New Haven and London

in Canada: McGill University Press

AMERICAN ECONOMIC HISTORY

Essays in Interpretation

Edited by STANLEY COBEN, Princeton University and FOREST G. HILL, University of Texas

Edited from the combined viewpoints of a historian and an economist, this fresh collection of thirty-six interpretive articles reflects recent scholarship on the leading issues in American economic history. Focusing on fundamental forces, problems and achievements, these essays reveal the extent to which economic development in the United States has been affected by "Western" values, and demonstrate the relevance that political, social, scientific, intellectual and business history have for the understanding of economic history.

618 Pages

PAPERBOUND

$3.95

LABOR IN CRISIS

The Steel Strike of 1919

DAVID BRODY, Ohio State University

"The volume is anchored in a thorough knowledge of all aspects of the steel industry, illustrating that its technology, scale, and labor practices made it the most representative of the new mass-production sector of the economy and the greatest challenge to the union movement."
—Labor History

208 Pages

PAPERBOUND

$1.65

THE SOVIET ECONOMY SINCE STALIN

HARRY SCHWARTZ

The New York Times' specialist on Russian affairs examines the U.S.S.R.'s economic policies between 1953 and 1958 and then considers the factors that have, since 1958, contributed to major economic failures. The continuing problems of Soviet agriculture and the ouster of Khrushchev are given close attention.

256 Pages

PAPERBOUND

$1.95

THE COMMON MARKET

Economic Integration in Europe

FINN B. JENSEN, Lehigh University and INGO WALTER, University of Missouri

In moderately technical language the historical development and current functioning of the European Economic Community are covered. Special emphasis is placed on such problems as tariff and trade policy, coordination of monetary and fiscal policies, regional planning, social problems, and the significance of the EEC for American business.

278 Pages

PAPERBOUND

$1.95

J. B. LIPPINCOTT COMPANY

College Department

EAST WASHINGTON SQUARE, PHILADELPHIA, PA. 19105

THE GERMAN ECONOMY 1870 to the Present

by GUSTAV STOLPER, KARL HAUSER
and KNUT BORCHARDT
Translated by TONI STOLPER

Recently published—a comprehensive study of Germany's economic growth since 1870. The first half of the book emphasizes the historic role of government in the German economy; it describes the rise of Germany as an industrial power, the financing of World War I, the economic problems of the Weimar Republic, and the steps leading to the emergence of Nazism. The second part of the book discusses the Third Reich and World War II, the partition of Germany, the restoration of a free market and flourishing economy in West Germany, and the problems of economic planning and control in East Germany. 353 pages, $6.95

HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN ECONOMY

Second Edition
by ROSS M. ROBERTSON

Taking as its theme the increasing role of the federal government in the private economy, this well-known introductory text analyzes economic growth and development from colonial times to the present, paying particular attention to the period since 1920. The emphasis throughout is on economic principles and the author stops to define key concepts as they become important to an understanding of the narrative. The illustration program includes some 50 charts, 25 maps, and some 90 halftones that serve to crystallize important points in the reading. 690 pages, $8.95

Harcourt, Brace & World, Inc.

New York / Chicago / San Francisco / Atlanta

27th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE
ECONOMIC HISTORY ASSOCIATION

Bellevue Stratford Hotel
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
September 7-9, 1967

---

OBSTACLES TO ECONOMIC GROWTH

September 7

AFTERNOON SESSION: INVITED DISSERTATIONS

CHAIRMAN: DONALD KEMMERER, University of Illinois

Wage Rates in Philadelphia, 1790-1830

Donald P. Adams, United States Naval Academy

The Role of the Yeoman Farmer in Westward Expansion

James D. Foust, Indiana University

The Compound Marine Steam Engine, 1830-1887

Ramon Knauerhase, University of Connecticut

The Irish Land Question, 1870-1903

Barbara Solow, Harvard University

Finance and Capital in Nineteenth Century America

Richard Sylla, Harvard University

DISCUSSANT: Dudley Dillard, University of Maryland

September 8

MORNING SESSION: GOVERNMENT AS AN OBSTACLE

CHAIRMAN: F. C. LANE, Johns Hopkins University

Papers: The Case of Russia

Arcadius Kahan, University of Chicago

The Case of China

Dwight Perkins, Harvard University

The Case of Central Europe

Herman Freudenberger, Tulane University

(continued overleaf)

27th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE
ECONOMIC HISTORY ASSOCIATION

Bellevue Stratford Hotel
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
September 7-9, 1967

---

(Program, continued)

DISCUSSANTS: Henry W. Broude, Yale University
Hugh G. J. Aitken, Amherst College
To be announced

LUNCH: GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING

AFTERNOON SESSION: SLAVERY AS AN OBSTACLE TO ECONOMIC GROWTH IN THE UNITED STATES

A PANEL DISCUSSION

CHAIRMAN: MOSES ABRAMOVITZ, Stanford University

Opening Statements:

John R. Meyer, Harvard University
Douglas Dowd, Cornell University

Panel Members:

Eli Ginzberg, Columbia University
Richard Sutch, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Alfred H. Conrad, City University of New York
Stanley Engerman, University of Rochester
Harry Scheiber, Dartmouth College

EVENING SESSION: PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS

Alexander Gerschenkron, Harvard University

September 9

MORNING SESSION: VALUE SYSTEMS AS AN OBSTACLE

CHAIRMAN: B. F. HOSELITZ, University of Chicago

Papers: The American Colonies

Sigmund Diamond, Columbia University

The Medieval Scene

M. M. Postan, Cambridge University

The Indian Example

Morris D. Morris, University of Washington

DISCUSSANTS: Shmuel Eisenstadt, Hebrew University
David Landes, Harvard University