Applied Psycholinguistics

Editor

Martha Crago, Dalhousie University, Canada

Applied Psycholinguistics publishes original research papers on the psychological processes involved in language. It examines language development and disorders in adults and children with and without developmental disabilities. Articles in Applied Psycholinguistics address the nature, acquisition, and impairments of language expression and comprehension, including writing and reading. This journal gathers together the best work from a variety of fields including linguistics, psychology, reading, education, language learning, sociology, speech and hearing, and neurology. In addition, issues include reviews of important new books, problem-oriented reviews of important or emergent areas, discussions of previously published papers, and methodological notes.

Ping Li, Pennsylvania State University, USA

Carmen Silva-Corvalán, University of Southern California, USA

Bilingualism: Language and Cognition is an international peer-reviewed journal focusing on bilingualism from a cognitive science perspective. The aims of the journal are to promote research on the bilingual person and to encourage debate in the field. The domains covered are the following: bilingual language competence, perception and production, bilingual language acquisition in children and adults, neurolinguistics of bilingualism (in normal and brain-damaged populations), and non-linguistic cognitive processes in bilinguals. Bilingualism carries articles and research notes on all aspects of the bilingual person, and is published three times a year.
