

BACK CHANNEL TO CUBA

The Hidden History of Negotiations between Washington and Havana

WILLIAM M. LEOGRANDE AND PETER KORNBLUH

"Challenging the prevailing narrative of U.S.-Cuba relations, this book investigates the history of the secret, and often surprising, dialogue between Washington and Havana. The authors, who spent more than a decade examining classified files, provide a comprehensive account of negotiations beginning in 1959. . . suggesting that the past holds lessons for future negotiators."

PIGMENTOCRACIES

Ethnicity, Race, and Color in Latin America

EDWARD TELLES AND
THE PROJECT ON ETHNICITY AND RACE IN LATIN AMERICA (PERLA)

"This book breaks new ground with its rigorous comparative approach, which reveals the variety of Latin American attitudes towards and perceptions of racial difference, and with its systematic use of questionnaire data, which allow many standard ideas about race in Latin American countries to be tested in detail—and confirmed in some cases, but challenged in others. Indispensable reading for all scholars and students of race and ethnicity in Latin America."

RHYTHMS OF RACE

Cuban Musicians and the Making of Latino New York City and Miami, 1940-1960

CHRISTINA D. ABREU

"A much-needed contribution to the understanding of the establishment of Cuban identity in the United States. Abreu persuasively excavates the earlier development of Cuban, Afro-Cuban, and Hispano/Latino identity in the 1940s and 1950s."

—Raul A. Fernandez,
University of California, Irvine

RETHINKING SLAVE REBELLION IN CUBA

La Escalera and the Insurgencies of 1841-1844

AISHA K. FINCH

"An innovative and pioneering study of Cuban slave rebellions in the 1840s written with passion and insight. Finch's groundbreaking analysis of the neglected and crucial role of women in the rebellion has wide-reaching implications for reframing the study of slave revolts throughout the Atlantic World."

—Matt D. Childs,
University of South Carolina

THE POLITICS OF GAY MARRIAGE IN LATIN AMERICA

Argentina, Chile and Mexico

JORDI DIEZ

Hardback 978-1-107-09914-2 £30.00
Publishing in May 2015

Addressing one of the defining social issues of our time, The Politics of Gay Marriage in Latin America explores how and why Latin America, a culturally Catholic and historically conservative region, has become a leader among nations of the Global South, and even the Global North, in the passage of gay marriage legislation. In the first comparative study of its kind, Jordi Díez explains cross-national variation in the enactment of gay marriage in three countries: Argentina, Chile, and Mexico.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Editorial Policy

The Journal of Latin American Studies is published four times a year, in February, May, August and November. Its editorial offices are located at the Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London. The editorial board comprises area studies specialists based in the United Kingdom from all the principal social science disciplines, including history.

The Journal aims to publish recent research in the field of Latin American studies in economics, geography, politics, international relations, sociology, social anthropology and history. Articles on literature and the arts are not normally included, but the editors are pleased to consider contributions in the field of intellectual and cultural history. Articles with an interdisciplinary approach are particularly welcome.

Manuscript Submission (visit <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jlas>)

Articles submitted to the Journal should be original contributions. They should not be under consideration by another journal, nor have been published or be awaiting publication elsewhere. Translations of articles that have already been published will not be accepted. If an author is publishing a closely related article elsewhere, this fact should be stated in a cover note to the editors. Authors of articles published in the Journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of their paper.

Articles should be between 10,000 and 12,000 words, including footnotes, tables etc. The Journal is published in English, but articles may also be submitted in Spanish or Portuguese for peer review; if accepted for publication, the responsibility for translating articles rests with the author.

For full instructions on submissions and journal style, visit www.journals.cambridge.org/las/ifc.

The Journal publishes commissioned book reviews in each issue. Not all books received can be reviewed, and editorial policy gives preference to reviews of books regarded as being of major importance for the disciplines covered by the Journal. Unsolicited reviews cannot be considered.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material for which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

All editorial correspondence should be addressed to The Editors, Journal of Latin American Studies, Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, UK, or sent to jlas@sas.ac.uk.

Proofs

Proofs of accepted articles will be sent to authors as pdf files for checking and correction of typesetting errors. Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

Offprints

Contributors will receive a pdf file of their article.

This issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organisation established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
