INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The ICLQ welcomes the submission of contributions for consideration by the Board of Editors with a view to publication. To submit an article please send it by email to the Publications editor, Anna Riddell: a.riddell@biicl.org.

The Board of Editors will only consider material which complies with the following:

1. The submission should be an original, unpublished work not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. Please note that our exclusive submission policy means you cannot submit your work to another journal until you have received a decision from us. If you would like to do so, you must withdraw your article from consideration by the ICLQ.

2. The ICLQ publishes articles that deal with public international law, private international law, comparative law, human rights law and European Union law. It particularly encourages the submission of innovative and original articles whose theme or content illuminate several of these subject areas. Articles which do no more than rehearse familiar and well-known material, or which are concerned only with national law in a non-comparative way, should not be submitted.

3. Long articles should not exceed 12,000 words, excluding footnotes. A submission of less than 6,000 words may be considered for the ‘Shorter Articles, Comments and Notes’ section, which may secure earlier publication. Please include the word count (including footnotes) in the email when submitting your article, and indicate if you intend it for the ‘Shorter Articles, Comments and Notes’ section.

4. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively through the article and be in the form normally used by the ICLQ. Please see the Style Guide for further information. Footnoting should not be excessive.

5. A short (50–100 words) abstract of the article should be supplied. We reserve the right to edit abstracts for length and style. Please also supply a minimum of 5 keywords for your article to enable digital searching.

6. Authors should state their present academic or professional affiliation and indicate any professional or personal involvement in the subject matter of the article.

7. It is preferred that submissions are sent as email attachments in Microsoft Word format to a.riddell@biicl.org. Please enter only your surname in the Subject line of the email. Alternatively, the manuscript, typed, double-spaced, on one side of A4 paper, should be accompanied by the text on CD in Microsoft Word.

For the ICLQ Style Guide, please visit www.journals.cambridge.org/iclq/ifc. In all matters not included in this Guide, the ICLQ follows the OSCOLA citation system for house style; please visit www.law.ox.ac.uk for details.
