The Kodály Foundation

making its first public appearance, announces an international competition for an original unaccompanied choral work by a composer of not more than thirty-five years of age. The Foundation will award a cash prize of £200 to the winner, and will arrange, if desired, publication of the work by Boosey & Hawkes. Performance of the winning entry by the Netherlands Chamber Choir will also be guaranteed.

Royalties from sales of the following work together with performance fees will be credited to the Foundation, and will be used to commission further works by young composers
