Aims and Scope
The Review is the quarterly publication of the National Institute of Economic and Social Research – one of Britain’s oldest and most prestigious independent research organisations. The Institute’s objective is to promote, through quantitative research, a deeper understanding of the interaction of economic and social forces that affect people’s lives so that they may be improved. It has no political affiliation, and receives no core funding from government. Its research programme is organised under the headings of Economic Modelling and Analysis; Productivity; Education and Training and the International Economy.

Copyright © National Institute of Economic and Social Research, 2006. Apart from fair dealing for the purposes of research or private study, or criticism or review, and only permitted under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, this publication may only be reproduced, stored or transmitted, in any form or by any means, with the prior permission of the Publishers, or in the case of reprographic reproduction, in accordance with the terms or licences issued by the Copyright Licensing Agency. Inquiries concerning reproduction outside those terms should be sent to the publishers at the above mentioned address. Periodicals postage rate is pending at Rahway, NJ. POSTMASTER. Notification of any change of address should be sent to: National Institute Economic Review, c/o Mercury Airfreight International Ltd, 365 Blair Road, Avenel, New Jersey 07001, USA.

The Review welcomes the offer of high quality articles describing findings of social or economic research. Articles should normally comprise 4–10,000 words, excluding tables. All articles are externally refereed, but the Review is able to organise quick publication in appropriate cases. Full notes for contributors are available from Fran Robinson (email: f.robinson@niesr.ac.uk), website: http://www.niesr.ac.uk. Articles intended for publication should be sent to National Institute Economic Review, 2 Dean Trench Street, London SW1P 3HE, or by e-mail to Fran Robinson, email: f.robinson@niesr.ac.uk.
