Hermann Wiesflecker: Österreich im Zeitalter Maximilians I. Die Vereinigung der Länder zum frühmodernen Staat. Der Aufstieg zur Weltmacht

1999.
558 Seiten, DM 128,-
ISBN 3-486-56453-6 (ROV)
ISBN 3-7029-0447-6 (Wien)

Die österreichische Geschichte wird dabei nicht isoliert, sondern im engen Verbund mit der Geschichte des Reiches und Europas gesehen. Es geht in dieser Darstellung um die Vereinigung der Länder zum frühmodernen Gesamtstaat, um Verfassungskämpfe und Verwaltungsreformen und um ein innerstaatliches Einrichtungswerk, das die Regierung der von Maximilian grundgelegten habsburgischen Großmacht erst ermöglichte.

SERIES EDITOR, CHARLES INGRAO, PURDUE UNIVERSITY

Albania at War, 1939-1945
by Bernd J. Fischer
Albania at War reviews the most important developments in Albania from the Italian invasion of the country in 1939 to the accession to power of the Albanian Communist Party and the establishment of a “people’s democracy” in 1946. Fischer analyzes in great detail failure of Rome’s policy, the subsequent German invasion of the country, and the rise of organized resistance movements against the Axis Powers.

In the past, Austria was the center of a large multinational and multiethnic empire, the second-largest state in Europe and the heart of cultural development, particularly in music. At the turn of the last century, it gave birth to modern psychology, philosophy, economics, and music. In the contemporary world, Austria has played a key role between Eastern and Western Europe; serves as a model of a democratic society and of a successful economy; participates fully in the new European Union and works with its old dominions and neighbors in East-Central Europe helping them in their renaissance. In also faces many of the problems of the modern period: ethnic antagonisms, questions of women's and immigrants' rights, and the possible loss of economic and political sovereignty in the new unified Europe. This series is drawn from many of these rich aspects of Austrian life and history. The Center for Austrian Studies serves scholars who study the politics, society, economy, and culture of modern Austria and of Habsburg Central Europe. It encourages comparative studies involving Austria or the Habsburg lands and other European states, stimulates discussion in the field, and provides a vehicle for circulating work in progress. It is open to all papers prior to final publication but gives priority to papers by affiliates of the Center and scholars who have given seminars or attended conferences at the Center. If you would like to have a paper considered for inclusion in the series, please contact Gerhard H. Weiss or Daniel Pinkerton at the Center for Austrian Studies.
