

Editorial Note

CHARLOTTE AUERBACH (1899–1994)

Geoffrey Beale is preparing a biographical memoir of the late Charlotte Auerbach for the Royal Society. Most unfortunately nearly all Auerbach's scientific and personal correspondence and records of experiments have been lost, probably through having been thrown out by Lotte herself. It would therefore be much appreciated if any former colleagues, ex-students or friends, holding such material would kindly send it to the address given below. Anecdotal memories would also be very welcome.
