Journal

IRAQ is a refereed journal devoted to studies of the history, art, archaeology, religion, economic and social life of Iraq, and to a lesser degree of the neighbouring countries where they relate to it, from the earliest times down to about AD 1750. Texts concerning these subjects, with translations and comments, will be considered; exclusively philological articles will not be accepted. Copyright is held by The British Institute for the Study of Iraq.

Contributors

Articles can be written in English, French or German. Please send your manuscript in both Word (or equivalent) and pdf formats. For refereeing purposes, we need a version in which all identifying information (name, institutional affiliation etc.) is removed; IRAQ uses a double blind refereeing system.

Articles may be submitted in English, French or German, and must include:

- an abstract suitable for translation into Arabic;
- a bibliography or full list of references;
- the editors request the name-date system of referencing (e.g., Mallowan 1954);
- and your address and email for academic purposes.

Where possible, abbreviations should match those current in The Assyrian Dictionary of the Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago.

Please use a Unicode font if your paper includes special characters such as used in cuneiform transliteration, for example.

Full instructions for contributors, including guidance on bibliographic citation, fonts, and image quality may be found at www.journals.cambridge.org/IRAQ/ifc

Under the direction of the Editorial Board all contributions to the journal are peer-reviewed anonymously by members of the board and by selected experts.

Articles should be sent to one of the Editors,

Dr Jon Taylor, jjtaylor@thebritishmuseum.ac.uk (for papers with a focus on texts)

Dr Paul Collins, paul.collins@ashmus.ox.ac.uk (for papers with a focus on archaeology or art history)

Membership with BISI
