This journal disseminates the latest work of researchers in the social and biological sciences who study the older population of Canada and other countries; informs policy debates relevant to aging; seeks to improve the quality of life for Canada’s older population and for older populations in other parts of the world through the publication of research that focuses on the broad range of relevant issues; and encourages the exchange of the latest ideas in gerontological research.
Ageing & Society is an inter-disciplinary and international journal devoted to the understanding of human ageing and the circumstances of older people in their social and cultural contexts. It draws contributions and has readers from many academic social science disciplines, and from clinical medicine and the humanities. In addition to original articles, Ageing & Society publishes book reviews, occasional review articles and special issues.

Ageing & Society has now moved to online submissions. The entire review process is now being conducted through the Manuscript Central platform, including revisions and editorial assessments. If you wish to submit a paper to the journal please do so via the website.

Editorial Policy: The Journal of Social Policy carries high quality, peer reviewed articles on all aspects of social policy in an international context. It places particular emphasis upon articles which seek to contribute to debates on the future direction of social policy, to present new empirical data, to advance theories, or to analyse issues in the making and implementation of social policy.

Subscriptions: Journal of Social Policy is sold together with Social Policy and Society as a joint subscription only, and is published four times per year: January, April, July and October. The annual 2016 institutional electronic-only subscription rate is US $683 in USA, Canada and Mexico. £399 elsewhere; print plus electronic US $830 or £478; print-only US $798 or £470. Single parts (Journal of Social Policy only) cost US $185 or £110. Prices exclude VAT, but include delivery by air where appropriate. Orders, which must be accompanied by payment, may be sent to a bookseller, subscription agent or direct to the publishers: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfillment Department, University Printing House, Shaffesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 8BS. Orders from the USA, Canada or Mexico should be sent to Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfillment Department, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, New York 10994-2133. EU subscribers (outside the UK) who are not registered for VAT should add VAT at their country’s rate. VAT registered subscribers should provide their VAT registration number. Japanese prices for institutions are available from Kinokuniya Company Ltd, PO Box 55, Chitose, Tokyo 156, Japan.

Copies of the journal for subscribers in the USA, Canada and Mexico are sent by air to New York to arrive with minimum delay.
