The Modern American Novel

Malcolm Bradbury

This book is an up-to-date, comprehensive study of major authors, tendencies, and movements in American fiction from the 1890s to the present day. Professor Bradbury discusses the cultural background to writers from Dreiser, Crane, and James to Vonnegut, Pynchon, and Erica Jong. He emphasizes the close relationship between American and European writing, challenging the widely held view that American fiction was formed 'on native grounds'. £9.95

Entertaining Satan

Witchcraft and the Culture of Early New England

John Demos

The author deliberately ignores the famous Salem witch trials in order to show how prevalent witchcraft was throughout New England during the second half of the nineteenth century. His book is partly a collection of case histories of witchcraft episodes, and partly an intense examination of the psychological, sociological, and historical reasons why such an outbreak of alleged witchcraft happened in that place at that time. £17.50

Dust Bowl

The Southern Plains in the 1930s

Donald Worster

'Working from an impressive and imaginative research base, Worster weaves together a study of attitudes and experiences, which is at times breathtakingly effective... superb social history... a gracefully written and fascinating book, deserving of the accolades it has already received.' History. Illustrated paperback £6.25

Over Here

The First World War and American Society

David M. Kennedy

'A scholarly work of the first order... A pleasure to read, this fine book is indispensable for anyone seriously interested in the impact of World War I on the American society... Perhaps Kennedy's most important contributions have to do with America's economic mobilization and the impact of the war itself on those who fought in it.' American History Illustrated. £6.25

G-Men

Hoover's FBI in American Popular Culture

By RICHARD GID POWERS. From the reign of the superstar criminals (Dutch Schultz, Al Capone, Machine Gun Kelly, Bruno Richard Hauptmann, Louis "Lepke" Buchalter, and the greatest of them all—the thirties' all-American gangster John Dillinger) to the present, G-Men traces the rise and fall of the FBI's public image under the direction of J. Edgar Hoover. This is a fascinating story of an amazing chapter in America's cultural history. Illustrated. $20.00

Literary Admirers of Alfred Stieglitz

By F. RICHARD THOMAS. Illustrated with many plates which exemplify Stieglitz' work, this book examines the profound influence the photographer had upon four of his literary friends and admirers: Gertrude Stein, William Carlos Williams, Hart Crane, and Sherwood Anderson. $14.50

Lawrence Ferlinghetti

Poet-at-Large

By LARRY SMITH. This is the first critical study to come to grips with the work of Lawrence Ferlinghetti. Smith assesses the poet's career and critically examines the eighteen books he has produced since 1955. Annotated bibliography. $9.95 paper; $22.50 cloth

The Presidential Election and Transition, 1980–1981

Edited by PAUL T. DAVID and DAVID H. EVERSON. Thirteen political scientists look at the nuts and bolts of the 1980 election, speculate on its consequences, and discuss politics in the 1980s. $24.95

The Ballad of America

The History of the United States in Song and Story

By JOHN ANTHONY SCOTT. A new edition of a popular text! "Imaginatively organized.... Young people will like the many contemporary pieces in this fresh, amusing approach to American history."—New York Times Book Review. $12.95 paper

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

- 1 All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to: The Editor, Journal of American Studies, School of English and American Studies, University of East Anglia, Norwich NR4 7TJ, England.
- 2 Articles should generally contain about 5,000 words. Longer or shorter articles, or articles in two or more parts, may be accepted by arrangement with the Editors.
- 3 Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere.
- 4 Contributions should be clearly typed in double spacing (including footnotes), preferably on A4 paper, with a wide left-hand margin. Diagrams, maps and illustrations may be included.
- 5 Spelling may conform either to British or American usage, providing it is consistent throughout.
- 6 Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered consecutively, and may most conveniently be placed, in double spacing, at the end of the article.
- 7 For guidance on matters of style, contributors should refer either to the MLA Handbook (1977), or to the Journal of American Studies Style Notes, copies of which may be obtained from the Editors.
- 8 Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
- 9 Notes intended for the Editors or Printer should be on a separate sheet.
- 10 First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by airmail where necessary, within three days of receiving them.
- 11 Corrections should be kept to an absolute minimum. They should be confined to errors of the typist or printer unless the Editor authorizes otherwise.
- 12 Contributors of articles and review essays receive 25 free offprints. Extra copies may be ordered according to a scale of charges.
- 13 Contributors need not be members of the British Association for American Studies. Unsolicited typescripts can only be returned to overseas contributors who send International Reply Coupons (not postage stamps).
- 14 Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyright, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press, to help protect their material, particularly in the USA.
