Further details are available in the Instructions for Contributors available at journals.cambridge.org/krv

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to the Journal. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their manuscript.

Questions regarding potential submissions or special issues should be sent to kantianreview@cardiff.ac.uk

Suggestions for books to review should be sent to the Book Reviews editor: edcky30@uw.edu. Those wishing to send hard copies of books suitable for review and listing should send them to the editorial assistant as above.

The U.K. Kant Society was founded in 1994 to encourage the study of all aspects of the philosophy of Immanuel Kant, including relations to his historical antecedents and successors as well as Kantian influence in contemporary philosophy. For more information, please visit: http://www.keele.ac.uk/uxks

The North American Kant Society (NAKS) was founded in 1985 at the Sixth International Kant Congress, held at the Pennsylvania State University. The goal of the society is to further the study of Kantian thought and scholarship from a variety of traditions and disciplines.
