SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES

International Theory invites authors to submit original theoretically oriented articles on the positive, legal, and/or normative aspects of world politics. Because IT is multidisciplinary with a broad intended audience, contributions must be as accessible as possible to readers from a wide range of disciplines and theoretical traditions. Papers that are primarily empirical or policy oriented are not a good fit.

We will not review manuscripts that have already been published, are scheduled for publication elsewhere, or have been simultaneously submitted to another journal; this applies to both print and online formats. All articles will be peer-reviewed by anonymous referees drawn for our Editorial Board and, on their advice, from relevant scholars around the world. Referees for the previous calendar year will be acknowledged in the final issue of each volume.

IT will review articles up to 15,000 words (including notes and bibliography), although authors will be encouraged to edit their papers to fewer than 12,000 words before publication. Brevity is encouraged and shorter papers will be advantaged in acceptance decisions. Please include a word count with submission, along with an abstract of no more than 150 words, which is not repeated from the paper itself.

References and citations should follow The Chicago Manual of Style. Citations in the text or footnotes should be limited to author's family name and date, with complete bibliographic information appearing in a list of references at the end of the article. The one exception is for legal articles; while strongly encouraged to follow the author-date system, if that proves unworkable legal authors may substitute the European Journal of International Law guidelines (available at <http://www.ejil.org/info/style-toc.html>). All tables and figures must be cited in a paper. Figures ideally to be submitted as separate TIFF or EPS files. Full details can be found on our website at journals.cambridge.org

Titles of journals should not be abbreviated in the list of references (author-date system) or in the footnotes (legal articles). Table, figures and their accompanying legends should be placed at the end of the article with their desired location indicated in the text. Authors should submit their manuscript in electronic form as a MS Word file in an email attachment to it.mershon@osu.edu. (Please do not submit the manuscript in PDF format). Authors should attach both a complete version of the manuscript as well as an anonymous version stripped of all identifying references to the author(s) that can be sent to reviewers.

To submit a manuscript, please visit www.editorialmanager.com/it, where you will find detailed information about the on-line submission procedure and required manuscript formatting.

Any questions about these procedures may be directed to the Editors.

Editor-in-Chief

Larissa van den Herik, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Firmly established as one of Europe's leading journals in the field, the Leiden Journal of International Law (LJL) provides a forum for two vital areas, namely international legal theory and international dispute settlement. It is unique in providing the most comprehensive coverage of the world's most important international tribunals in The Hague and elsewhere.

Editor-in-Chief

P. Vlas, Free University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

The Netherlands International Law Review (NILR) addresses relevant topics and recent trends in international law and the conflict of laws, including their comparative legal aspects. Articles are combined with English-language reports on topical Dutch judicial decisions, survey of the case law on the topic of civil jurisdiction and enforcement of judgments in Europe, an update on the current developments regarding The Hague's international tribunals, an overview of the Hague Conventions on Private International Law, book reviews, and occasionally, a short commentary on case law or legislation.

Editor

Douglas A. Irwin, Dartmouth College, Hanover, USA

The World Trade Review was established at the initiative of the Secretariat of the World Trade Organization (WTO) in close cooperation with Cambridge University Press. It is an independent journal - the Editor and all but one member of the Editorial Board are drawn from university faculties - that includes articles written from economic, legal, political and inter-disciplinary perspectives on issues of relevance to the multilateral trading system. The journal also includes shorter articles seeking to rebut or challenge published papers.
