ORGANISED SOUND

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

AIMS AND SCOPE

Organised Sound is a fully peer-reviewed scholarly journal focusing on music and multimedia technology. It is a forum for music scholars, composers, performers, computer scientists, mathematicians and engineers to share the results of their research, and how it affects musical issues. Youn researchers will be particularly encouraged. Contributors are encouraged to submit sound examples and multimedia material for the online version of the journal.

SUBMISSION

Submission of a paper to Organised Sound is held to imply that it represents an original contribution not previously published and that it is not being considered elsewhere. Papers are reviewed by at least two referees.

Papers should be submitted by email to os@duke.ac.uk.

Legal

De Montfort University, Leicester LE1 9BH, UK.

Organisations authorised by the Copyright Licensing Agency Code 1355-7718/2017.

Orders, which must be accompanied by payment, may be sent to a bookseller, subscription agent or direct to the publisher:

Richard Orton1
University of York

Ian Whalley (Australia)
University of Waikato

David Wessel (USA)

Central Conservatory of Music

Eduardo Miranda
University of Plymouth

Gareth Paise
Arizona State University, USA

Marianne Blackburn
Liverpool Hope University

Marc Battier
Université de Paris IV -Sorbonne, Paris

Liverpool Hope University

Leigh Landy
De Montfort University, Leicester LE1 9BH, UK.

Shanghai Tech University

Margaret Schedel (North America)

Shanghai Tech University, New York

Simon Fraser University

Metropolitan Opera, New York

New-York University

Inventaire des Musiciens

PS: Manuscripts should be submitted electronically to the editors as Word files. The journal initials OS and the characters of the author surname should be used in the file name, plus .doc, e.g. OSjohn.doc should be a typical file name.

Please note that it is each author’s sole responsibility to gain copyright clearance for both text and music. It is an offence to reproduce music without permission. Please note that it is each author’s sole responsibility to gain copyright clearance for both text and music. It is an offence to reproduce music without permission.

Contributors will receive a PDF offprint of their article when it is published.

This journal has been printed on FSC-certified paper.

Downloaded from https://www.cambridge.org/core/terms on 30 March 2021 by guest. Subject to the Cambridge Core terms of use, available at https://www.cambridge.org/core/terms
CONTENTS

Editorial 143
Failed Histories of Electronic Music 150
Daniel R. Wilson

Inaudible Visitors: Theories of sound reproduction in the studio practice of Pierre Schaeffer 161
Reuben de Lautour

“There Must Be a Poetry of Sound That None of Us Knows…” Early British documentary film and the prefiguring of musique concrète 172
Geoffrey Cox

The Forgotten History of Repetitive Audio Technologies 187
Christophe Laveau

Loudspeakers Optional: A history of non-loudspeaker-based electroacoustic music 195
Jason Long, Jim Murphy, Dale Carnegie and Ajay Kapur

A Day in Algonquin Park: William W. H. Gunn and the circadian audio portrait 206
Laura Cameron and Matt Rogalsky

The Don Banks Music Box to The Putney: The genesis and development of the VCS3 synthesiser 217
James Gardner

Canonisation and Documentation of Interdisciplinary Electroacoustic Music, Exemplified by Three Cases from the Netherlands: Dick Raaijmakers, Michel Waisvisz and Huba de Graaff 228
Hannah Bosma

Pioneer Spirits: New media representations of women in electronic music history 238
Frances Morgan

Visible Finger in Electronic Music: Rethinking sound through neo-colonial labour 250
Lucie Vágnerová

A History of Electronic Music at the University of Iowa 259
Paul Duffy

Electroacoustic Feedback and the Emergence of Sound Installation: Remarks on a line of flight in the live electronic music by Alvin Lucier and Max Neuhaus 268
Matthieu Saladin

Across Fields: Sound, art and technology from an electromechanical perspective 276
Jon Pigott

Music without Musicians… but with Scientists, Technicians and Computer Companies 286
Giulitta Paradini

Early Computer Music Experiments in Australia and England 297
Paul Dombrowski

Book review 308

For further information about this journal please go to the journal web site at cambridge.org/oso

Cover image courtesy of Bret Battey