The Israel Law Review is the oldest and most acclaimed Israeli law journal published in English. Since its establishment in 1966 it has become a leading publication in the field of human rights, public law and international law; focusing on law in times of tension and conflict.

The Review enjoys a long-standing reputation for excellence, applies a rigorous system of peer review and attracts a combination of established authors and new voices writing on cutting edge topics.

The Israel Law Review is published under the auspices and management of the Minerva Center for Human Rights at the Law Faculty of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Under this stewardship, it focuses on scholarship in the fields of human rights, public law and international law and also examines the application of legal norms under conditions of conflict and political uncertainty - highlighting the relevance of the Israeli experience in these fields to other parts of the world and that of other societies to Israel.

THE JOURNAL OF THE ASSOCIATION FOR JEWISH STUDIES

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

AJS Review publishes scholarly articles and book reviews covering the field of Jewish studies. From biblical and rabbinic textual and historical studies to modern history, social sciences, the arts, and literature, the journal welcomes articles of interest to both academic and lay audiences around the world. A substantial portion of each volume is devoted to reviews of the latest Judaic scholarship and review essays on current trends in the field.

MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION

Manuscripts for consideration should be e-mailed as a MS Word to the AJS Review managing editor at ajsreview@ajs.cjh.org. Articles will be put through a process of blind refereeing. Manuscripts should ideally be in the range of 8,000–10,000 words in length, not counting notes, tables, and charts. They should conform to Chicago Manual of Style, ed. 15. Authors should avoid any identifying references in their submissions and provide a separate title page with their name, contact information, and institutional affiliation along with a short abstract (ca. 200 words). Authors of accepted articles will be asked to prepare a final version in the journal's style, which is available online at: www.ajsnet.org/ajsreview.htm.

COPYRIGHT

Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not been previously published and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Authors must obtain written permission for material for which they do not own the copyright. A Copyright Transfer Agreement, with certain specified rights reserved by the author, must be signed and returned to the Editors by senior authors of accepted manuscripts, prior to publication.
