

NEWS and ANNOUNCEMENTS

Researchers on coal miners. Olivier Kourchid is setting up an international network of researchers in all disciplines who are working on coal miners and the coal mining industry in the past and the present in all countries with the aim of facilitating comparative work in the field. Researchers working on coal mining and miners are asked to send a list of their publications on the subject and a brief description of present and future research plans to either Olivier Kourchid, GST-IRESO—CNRS, 59–61 Rue Pouchet, 75489 Cedex 17 Paris (France), or to Don Reid, Department of History, Hamilton 070, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC 27514.

Les révolutions du XIXe siècle. The publication of a series entitled “1852–1872: Du second empire a la troisième republique” brings to completion the publication of the collection “Les révolutions du XIXe siècle,” devoted to the reprint of texts and documents relating to the social history of nineteenth-century France. Inquiries should be addressed to EDMIS, 23 rue de Valois, 75001, Paris (France).
