

to remind you—

THE SCORE OF THE MONTH CLUB

is a club without admission fee or subscription. Membership is entirely free

Each month a full score of a classical or modern work is offered for sale to all members, who are notified in advance of the work chosen and its price, the notification including an informative programme note.

Every member is fully entitled to refuse the score

If he accepts it, it is supplied to him (C.O.D. unless he has an account) at the normal selling price.

WITH EVERY FOURTH SCORE PURCHASED WITHIN THE YEAR, THE MEMBER RECEIVES, ENTIRELY FREE OF CHARGE, A "DIVIDEND" FULL SCORE, CHOSEN BY HIMSELF FROM A WIDE AND VARIED LIST

Since its inauguration in 1948, this unique service has proved invaluable to conductors, students, and music lovers generally. In addition, Boosey & Hawkes Information Bulletins, which give news of important events in the sphere of contemporary music, are supplied to members free of charge.

"Dividend" scores at present available include the following works:—

William Alwyn:	Concerto Grosso No. 2
Benjamin Britten:	Variations on a theme of Frank Bridge
Frederick Delius:	The Walk to the Paradise Garden
Herbert Howells:	Elegy, for Viola, String Quartet and String Orchestra
Mozart:	Overture to Idomeneo
Richard Strauss:	Der Rosenkavalier, Waltz
Igor Strawinsky:	Mass

All scores offered are full size (not miniature) orchestral scores, average dimensions thirteen inches by ten inches.

If you are interested in full scores, why not acquire them in the most economical way?
