A DIGEST OF EAST AFRICAN CRIMINAL CASE LAW 1897-1954

Compiled and Edited by

I. ROSEN

of Gray's Inn, Barrister-at-Law

Assisted by

F. de F. STRATTON

of Gray's Inn, Barrister-at-Law

The learned authors have gathered together from the decisions of the Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa and the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council on appeal from that court, a Digest of Cases on Criminal Law. It is arranged alphabetically by subject matter and the fullest cross-references are given. A complete Table of Cases is included and in all citations an indication is given of the Territory concerned.

Price £5 net, delivery charges extra

A supplementary volume covering the years 1955 and 1956 will be issued in 1958. Further particulars may be obtained from the Publishers.

... its accuracy is unimpeachable. It is far more than a dictionary.... This work... is a compendium of parliamentary procedure arranged alphabetically under specific terms, and, as such, should be of immense use to us all, including journalists and historians, who wish to assure themselves of the precise meaning and implications of parliamentary expressions... there has never yet been so handy a compendium of parliamentary matters, covering so wide a field; and the authors deserve much congratulation on bringing to completion so valuable a work."—The Times' Literary Supplement.

THE EASTERN AFRICA LAW REPORTS

The Publishers have pleasure in announcing the inauguration of a new series of Law Reports as from the 1st January, 1957, covering the decisions of:

- (a) the Privy Council on appeals from the Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa or from any superior Court of the constituent territories of Eastern Africa.
- (b) the Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa.
- (c) the superior Courts of the constituent territories, Aden, Kenya, Seychelles, Somaliland, Tanganyika, Uganda and Zanzibar.

For the year of inauguration, namely 1957, three parts will be issued. Thereafter the reports will be issued quarterly. Generally the style will follow that of THE ALL ENGLAND LAW REPORTS which have proved themselves to be the most popular and widely used series of Law Reports in the world.
