Area Studies
Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

Cambridge has a vibrant programme of books and journals spanning all geographical areas of the world.

We publish prestigious book series and stand-alone titles that analyse regions through a variety of disciplines in both the humanities and social sciences, ranging from politics, economics and history through to anthropology and religion.

Our multi- and interdisciplinary journals regularly achieve high Impact Factors and lead their respective fields.

Instructions for contributors

Editorial policy
Each issue of European Review includes a wide range of articles and features of immediate interest to an intellectual readership. The journal aims to stimulate and develop thoughtful debate with contributions from distinguished writers in academic, professional and public life. European Review continues to stimulate for the exchange of ideas and information.

Submissions
Authors should first consult the Editor about their plans.

Submissions should be sent by email to the Editor (Professor Theo D’Ham, thero.dhaen@arts.kuleuven.be). The author’s full postal address, full email address, telephone and fax numbers where available, should also appear on a front sheet in the submission. To be considered for publication, a submission should be in Word. Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unsolicited and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to the Academia Europaea.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

Before submitting your typescript, please check carefully that factual accuracy and stylistic consistency are maintained at a late stage in expensive and can delay progress. Special care should be taken in checking quotations and bibliographical references for accuracy, especially spelling, accents, page and line numbers.

Manuscripts preparation
Contributors should submit a copy of manuscripts to the Editor in Word format – this should include all artwork. Files should be named ERWsmithfig1.eps (for diagrams); ERWsmith.pdf (for abstracts etc); ERWsmith1.doc (for manuscripts); ERWsmith1.pdf (for Word manuscripts). Please ensure no special characters are used and at least 12-point Times New Roman unless specified otherwise. Provide a title page with the name of the author(s) and affiliation(s), an abstract of up to 300 words, and a note of up to 100 words indicating the relationship of the paper to other work. Include in this note a statement of the object and scope of the paper and an explanation of any unusual terminologies or abbreviations.

Footnotes are not acceptable. Endnotes should be substituted for emphasis but should be separate from references. They should be numbered individually. Greek letters and unusual signs should be identified with the author’s name typed on the line below the title. Papers should be subdivided into sections and, if necessary, annotated. Each illustration may appear (e.g. Fig. 1 near here). Supply a label with full details about the picture source and to obtain from us with full details about the picture source and to obtain from us with full details about the picture source and to obtain from us with full details about the picture source.

Proofs
Authors proofs will be by email as pdf files. Authors may return a marked hard copy or pdf scans of marked pages. Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors. Corrected proofs should be returned to the Publisher within 48 hours of receipt.

Copyright (on certain conditions) to the Academia Europaea.

Manuscripts submitted to the publication, it may be more convenient to number each time. Please ensure that references are mentioned in the text in the correct numerical order. Full references are to be grouped together at the end of the paper in numerical order. Please ensure the details of all references are complete. If doubt please include all available information.

References should take the following form.

Journal reference: 1. Author’s surname followed by initials (list all names rather than using et al.), date in parentheses, title of article in Roman, published journals in italics, volume number in bold, page number (without using p. and pp.).

Book reference: 2. Author’s surname followed by initials (list all names rather than using et al.), date in parentheses, published work in italics, where appropriate editors’ names in Roman, location and publisher in parentheses, page range (using p. and pp.).

Examples:

For many articles submitted to the publication, it is more useful to provide a short bibliography under heading ‘Further Reading’. There is no footnote style. Footnotes will be placed in the reference list.
