Area Studies
Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

Cambridge has a vibrant programme of books and journals spanning all geographical areas of the world.

We publish prestigious book series and standalone titles that analyse regions through a variety of disciplines in both the humanities and social sciences, ranging from politics, economics and history through to anthropology and religion.

Our multi- and interdisciplinary journals regularly achieve high Impact Factors and lead their respective fields.

Imaginary geography.

Relevant illustrations are welcomed.

Colour illustrations will be used in the online version and will appear in black and white in print unless arrangements are made with the production editor, in which case there is a charge of £40 per figure. It is the author’s responsibility to provide us with full details about the picture source and to obtain from publishers or other relevant individuals permission to reproduce material. Should the number in the text margin where you hope each illustration may appear (e.g. Fig. 1 hereafter). Supply a separate numbered list of captions, double-spaced, with the provenance of the illustration and any required acknowledgement. Artwork should be according to the convention: ESWThms ex where the number is the figure number. Tables, graphs, maps and line drawings should all be provided on separate sheets.

References

In this issue, references to the literature by superior Arabic numerals which run consecutively through the paper. If a reference is cited more than once in the text, use the same number each time. Please ensure that references are mentioned in the text in the correct numerical order.

Full references are to be grouped together at the end of the paper in numerical order. Please ensure the details of all references are complete. In doubt please include all available information.

References should take the following form.

Journal reference:

1. Author’s surname followed by initials (list all names rather than using et al.), date in parentheses, title of article in Roman, published journals in italics, journal volume in bold, page number (without using p. and pp.).

Book reference:

2. Author’s surname followed by initials (list all names rather than using et al.), date in parentheses, published work in italics, where appropriate, author’s names in Roman, location and publisher in parentheses, page range (using p. and pp.).

Example:

For many articles submitted to the publication, it may be more useful to provide a short bibliography under heading “Further Reading.” There is no footnote style. Footnotes will be placed in the reference list.

Proofs

Authors proofs will be sent by email as pdf files. Authors may return a marked hard copy or pdf scans of marked pages. Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at the proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge for any alterations to other than typographical or factual errors. Corrected proofs should be returned to the Publisher within 48 hours of receipt.

Offprints

Contributors will receive a pdf file of their article.
