NEW FROM KNOPF DOUBLEDAY

NUTSHELL IAN McEWAN

This classic tale of murder from one of the world's master storytellers, is narrated from the perspective of an unborn baby, as he overhears his mother and her lover plotting to betray his father.

"A small tour de force that showcases all of Mr. McEwan's narrative gifts of precision, authority and control, plus a new, Tom Stoppard-like delight in the sly gymnastics that words can perform."

—The New York Times

NAN A. TALESE | CLOTH | 208 PAGES | $24.95

THE FEUD

Vladimir Nabokov, Edmund Wilson, and the End of a Beautiful Friendship

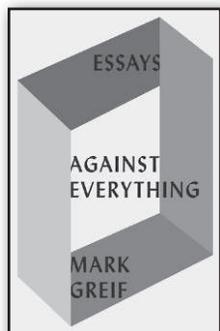

ALEX BEAM

The ironic and sad tale of how Wilson and Nabokov's friendship was destroyed in a fit of mutual pique and egomania.

"Beam is a natural storyteller and lucid scholar. . . . The account of these two apparent geniuses devolving into bickering schoolchildren is endlessly readable and bittersweetly comic."

—Library Journal, starred review

AGAINST EVERYTHING

Essays

MARK GRIEF

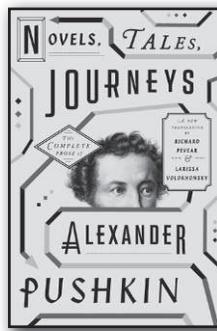

A collection of critical essays, written over eleven years, by a co-founder of the literary magazine n + 1 address key topics in the cultural and intellectual life of our times such as: the crisis of policing, the tyranny of food snobs, and the sexualization of childhood.

—The New York Times

"Mark Grief writes a contrarian, skeptical prose that is at the same time never cynical: it opens out to beauty and the possibility of change."

—Zadie Smith, author of White Teeth and Swing Time
