Wanderings in Roman Britain

By ARTHUR WEIGALL

Author of 'A History of the Pharaohs', &c.

IN some forty separate chapters Mr. Weigall gives a picturesque and illuminating account of each of the important Roman centres in this country, and conveys, in a more or less chronological sequence, a vivid picture of the whole period of the Roman occupation. A book of great interest both to visitors, and to readers generally who wish to know what there is of Rome to be seen in these islands, and who desire to grasp the general significance of that glorious epoch.
