

After the panels, papers and palm-pressing....

Restaurants

..... It is the incontestable truth that New York is heaven for gastronomes of all persuasions and wallet sizes. From Chinatown and Little Italy, from innumerable diners and bistros to legendary steakhouses and four-star establishments, from sushi and tapas to a cheeseburger, the Big Apple's fare is fruit ripe for picking. It is said that if one were to dine out every night of the week, it would take 75 years to visit every restaurant once. And as any native will tell you, real pizza can only be found in New York.

Museums

..... New York boasts museums of great quality and celebrity—the Museum of Modern Art (a short walk from the Hilton and Sheraton hotels), the Guggenheim, the Metropolitan, the Whitney, and, for those not yet sick of “Jurassic Park” merchandise, the Museum of Natural History. Smaller but equally dazzling jewels include the Frick Collection, where one can admire works of European masters in the elegant setting of the Frick family mansion; the Taipei Gallery; Ellis Island; the U.S.S. Intrepid Sea-Air-Space Museum, an aircraft carrier docked on Manhattan's West Side and the Museum of Television and Radio, where video and interactive displays chart the personalities and history of these media.

Nightlife

..... Apollo Theater, Beacon Theater, Blue Note, BROADWAY!, Carnegie Hall, CBGB, Dance Theater of Harlem, Hayden Planetarium, Lincoln Center (Alice Tully Hall, Avery Fisher Hall, Metropolitan Opera, New York State Opera), Madison Square Garden, New York City Ballet, 92nd Street Y, Paramount Theater, Radio City Music Hall, Shakespeare in the Park, Village Gate, PLUS, major league sports, U.S. Open Tennis, pubs, clubs, off-Broadway productions, galleries.... You should not be spending much time in your hotel room!

AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION

American Political Science Association • 90th Annual Meeting • New York City • September 1-4, 1994