

New from Cambridge

The Fall of the House of Labor
The Workplace, the State, and American Labor
Activism, 1865–1925
David Montgomery

“David Montgomery’s meticulous examination of workers, of workplace behavior, and of worker-management interaction in the years from the Civil War to the 1920’s will be essential reading for all concerned with the social, economic, and political history of this period. Montgomery’s richness of detail in examining the relationships among workers of different races, nationalities, genders, and occupations, as well as in the analysis of the labor impact upon changing patterns of management behavior, makes [the book] one of the most important works in labor history in recent decades.” – Stanley L. Engerman

“...a tremendous piece of scholarship—nothing less than a comprehensive reworking of the formative era of modern American working-class history.” – David Brody

Cloth About $29.95

Now in paperback...

Energy Policy in America Since 1945
A Study of Business-Government Relations
Richard H.K. Vietor

“Anyone interested in government-business interaction and its impact on fossil energy will find this book invaluable. It offers a provocative analysis of how energy surplus was turned into shortage and how both market and administrative mechanisms proved deficient in dealing with the problem.” – American Historical Review

Paperback $12.95

At bookstores or order from

Cambridge University Press

32 East 57th Street, NY, NY 10022

Cambridge toll-free numbers for orders only:

800-872-7423, outside NY State, 800-227-0247, NY State only.

MasterCard and Visa accepted.

New Titles in...

THE TSARIST ECONOMY, 1850-1917

Peter Gatrell. "Provides a solid and concise survey of key aspects of the development of the Russian economy from the middle of the 19th century to the 1917 Revolution. . . . [He] examines population growth and the labor market, the agricultural and manufacturing sectors, and investment and finance. The volume includes many notes, several maps, tables, a detailed index, and a selective bibliography of major works in English, French, and German."—Choice
0-312-82191-3      288 pp.      $29.95

THE EUROPEAN EXPERIENCE

A Historical Critique of Development Theory

Dieter Senghaas; translated by K. H. Kimmig. "A pathbreaking book on an important subject. This book should fascinate anyone interested in history but it is more important for the present and future of world politics."—Karl W. Deutsch, Professor of Government, Harvard and Berlin
Designed to overcome the problems of rhetoric in the debate over the Third World, this original study by a leading scholar of the North-South conflict offers a fresh look at the European experience during the past 150 years.
Cloth: 0-907582-17-6      $26.95      288 pp.
Paper: 0-907582-33-8      $10.50
A Berg Book

THE ROMANIAN ECONOMY IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

David Turnock. This book charts the economic development of Romania during the twentieth century by surveying the country's resources and by examining the development of the economy's different sectors. Turnock structures his study around individual analyses of the economy at the different stages of its development.
0-312-69164-5      320 pp.      $35.00

THE SPANISH ECONOMY

An Introduction

Ramón Tamames. This first English translation (by Darlene Marie Cervantes) of Tamames's comprehensive study of the Spanish economy covers a wide range of topics including Spain's economic "habitat," the population growth and distribution; the system of production; foreign trade; the national income and income distribution; and the financial system. It also includes several supplementary passages designed to clarify subjects requiring additional explanation for non-Spanish readers.
0-312-74987-2      288 pp.      $35.00

THE DANISH ECONOMY IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

Hans Christian Johansen. This comprehensive survey analyzes the economic and social development in Denmark after 1920. It includes an introduction to Danish society in 1920 when agriculture still dominated the economic structure of the country and industrialization had only begun to emerge in a few areas and focuses on the development within the various trades, the role of the public sector and the growing standard of living.
0-312-00373-0      240 pp.      $35.00

THE NATIONALISATION OF BRITISH TRANSPORT

Michael R. Bonavia. This book fills an important gap in modern history by examining the extraordinary way in which the Labour government of 1945-51 attempted not merely to nationalize all public inland transport in Great Britain but also to "integrate" it by subordinating it to a single huge corporation, the British Transport Commission. The release of government papers on the subject in the Public Record Office under the thirty years' rule has enabled much new light to be thrown on this remarkable episode.
0-312-55961-5      205 pp.      $35.00

Economic History

GERMAN MACROECONOMIC HISTORY 1880-1979

A Study of the Effects of Economic Policy on Inflation, Currency Depreciation and Growth

Andres Sommariva and Giuseppe

Tullio. This book analyzes the macro-economic developments in Germany from 1880 to 1979 by testing empirically and advancing hypotheses on the working of the gold standard; the causes of the hyperinflation from 1919 to 1923; the great depression of 1929 to 1933; and the effects of the war's destruction on post-war economic growth.

0-312-32588-6 320 pp. $35.00

THE RAVEN OF ZURICH (1881-1956)

The Memoirs of Felix Somary

A. J. Sherman, translator. This Viennese-born Swiss banker played an important role in world politics from the beginning of this century until his death in 1956 as an advisor to statesmen and governments. Somary's memoirs include discussion of fin de siècle Vienna, the Russo-Japanese war, the German occupation of Belgium in 1914, German inflation, the 1929 "Crash," the rise of Hitler, and the unofficial representation of Swiss interests in the United States during World War II.

0-312-66407-9 322 pp. $29.95

THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF JAPAN

A Quantitative Study

Ryōshin Minami; translated by Ralph Thompson and Ryōshin

Minami. This detailed study describes the last hundred years of Japan's remarkable economic growth from the Meiji period to the present day. Minami reveals the factors which account for Japan's successful economic take-off during the Meiji period and explains why Japan has achieved a more rapid rate of economic growth than other developed countries.

0-312-22876-7 514 pp. $37.50

PROTO-INDUSTRIALISATION IN SCANDINAVIA

Craft Skills in the Industrial Revolution

Maths Isacson and Lars Magnusson.

This volume covers the early modern period of economic development in Scandinavia, concentrating on the recent debate over proto-industrialisation. The debate has revolved largely around the cases of England, Flanders and the Rhineland. This comparative dimension—that of relating those countries to the Scandinavian case—provides a further test of the theories put forth by Mendels and Medick.

0-85496-514-9 208 pp. $29.95

A Berg Book

INTERNATIONAL BANKING IN THE 19TH AND 20TH CENTURIES

Karl Erich Born; translated by

Volker Berghahn. "... no other book gives so full a chronological narrative account of the evolution of banks in the United States, Britain, France, and Germany, with some information also about Japan, or of their international activities."—Journal of Modern History
"It is well written, clearly translated, and remarkably concise."—International History Review

0-907582-04-4 353 pp. $12.95 (paper)

A Berg Book

WEALTH AND TAXATION IN CENTRAL EUROPE

The History and Sociology of Public Finance
Peter-Christian Witt, editor. This anthology, edited by Germany's foremost historian of public finance, uses finance and taxation as a key for raising fundamental questions about the distribution of social and political power in Central Europe from the late Middle Ages to the twentieth century. The essays explicitly apply to the methods of finance sociology to provide analyses of power structures and of the causes and symptoms of societal conditions and human action.

0-85496-523-8 208 pp. $27.50

A Berg Book

St. Martin's Press

Scholarly and Reference Books • 175 Fifth Avenue • New York, NY 10010

Courtesy, Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of New York

The Morgans Private International Bankers, 1854–1913

Vincent P. Carosso

Using for the first time the large collections that constitute the Morgans' own business records, as well as other private papers and public archives, Vincent Carosso presents a comprehensive history of the House of Morgan's enormous economic and political power.

Harvard Studies in Business History, 38
$65.00

Unfree Labor American Slavery and Russian Serfdom Peter Kolchin

"An original, perceptive, and significant book. . . Kolchin's analysis provides fresh insights into the nature of unfree labor in general and slavery and serfdom in particular."

—Harold D. Woodman,
Purdue University

Belknap $25.00

Population in an Interacting World

Edited by William Alonso

On the premise that local population trends cannot be understood apart from structural and historical factors, this book studies the demographic interplay linking rich and poor nations.

$30.00

Paperbacks

Growth, Distribution, and Prices

Stephen A. Marglin

"Clear, bright, and engaged, [Marglin] writes well with breadth and vision."

—Christopher Bliss, The Economic Journal
Harvard Economic Studies, 155 $11.95 paper

Commonwealth

A Study of the Role of Government in the American Economy
Massachusetts, 1774–1861
Revised Edition, 1969

Oscar Handlin and Mary Flug Handlin

This pioneer study revealed for the first time the importance of political action in the development of the American free enterprise system.

Belknap

$8.95 paper

Harvard University Press
Cambridge, MA 02138