History
Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

History is the largest single subject area for the Press. It is a programme with both depth and breadth, ranging in subject matter from late antiquity to the present day, international in scope and embracing new approaches.

Our publishing includes major reference series, textbooks and monographs, as well as a collection of distinguished journals affiliated to the world’s leading scholarly societies.

Together, they reflect the diversity of the discipline and offer an unmatched resource for today’s historians.

Instructions for contributors
I.J.A.S. publishes research on Asia, primarily in the social sciences and humanities. The Journal is particularly interested in locating contemporary change within a historical framework, especially using interdisciplinary approaches, and promotes comparative studies involving the various regions of Asia. While the Journal will publish scholars from around the world, it aims to focus attention on the work of Asian scholars, in order to encourage multi-directional scholarly communication in Asian studies. I.J.A.S. seeks both original papers and survey articles that fall within its scope. Since the Journal's attempting to cross methodological boundaries, it will welcome papers that develop new methodologies within their general approach. For further information, visit www.ioc.u-tokyo.ac.jp/pubs/i-journal_as/journal.htm
