CALL FOR PAPERS

Business and Politics is actively soliciting contributions for future issues of the journal. We encourage the submission of research articles, case studies, or commentaries. Research articles should present original theoretical, conceptual, or empirical materials. Cases, which apply theoretical ideas to focus on real world examples of policymaking, should be suitable for classroom use and cover recent events of relevance to business professionals and government officials. Commentaries, which include broad overviews of public policy regarding business political activity and trends in business politics, or discussion of recent articles published in Business and Politics, should be tailored for broad readership.

The focus of submissions should be on the broad area of the interaction between firms and political actors. Two specific areas are of particular interest to the journal. The first concerns the use of non-market corporate strategy. These efforts include internal organizational design decisions as well as external strategies. Internal organizational design refers to management structure, sourcing decisions, and transnational organization with respect to the firm’s non-market environment. External strategies include legal tactics, testimony, lobbying and other means to influence policy makers at all levels of government and international institutions as an adjunct to market strategies of the firm.

A second area of interest involves efforts by policy makers to influence firm behaviour through regulatory, legal, financial, and other government instruments. We do not favour any particular methodologies or approaches, but emphasize analytical rigor and novel empirical analysis. The journal is particularly interested in submissions focusing on different regions of the world, cross-regional studies, and interdisciplinary work. It strongly encourages submissions from business, political science, law, economics, and public policy.

Articles will be evaluated by the Editors to establish whether they fit with the journal’s objectives and will then be reviewed by anonymous referees. Authors can expect to be informed of the Editors’ decision within three months of submission. Manuscripts may be submitted to any of the three regional offices listed on the inside back cover of the journal. While we prefer papers to be submitted in triplicate in hardcopy, we will also accept electronic submissions in a commonly used word processing format.

Submissions: All papers should be submitted in triplicate. An abstract should be included on a separate page. We encourage authors to also send a copy of their manuscript in electronic form, either by e-mail or on a 3.5 inch floppy disk. Where possible, the file should be saved in the ‘Word for Windows’ format.

Presentation: Manuscripts should be double spaced throughout and single-sided. Please allow for generous margins and number all pages consecutively. The author should retain a copy, as submitted manuscripts cannot be returned. All papers should include a word count. Full names of the author(s) should be given, an address for correspondence, and where possible a contact telephone number, facsimile number, and e-mail address. Current and recent academic and professional affiliations should be supplied, together with a list of major publications (with dates and name of publisher) and forthcoming books.

Footnotes. Please use in-text references and footnotes. In the manuscript’s body cite a published sources in a footnote that shows the author’s last name and the date, adding page numbers when quoting from or referring to a particular passage. Footnotes may include a brief comment that helps the reader to understand the source’s value and viewpoint or commentary on an issue raised in the paper. Papers should also contain a reference list with the complete facts of publication or availability for each source cited, using the author-date form. In the reference list show sources primarily in alphabetical order by the first author’s surname and secondarily in chronological order with the earliest date first. Provide first names (instead of initials) of authors when available. A style sheet is available from the Business and Politics editorial office giving details of formats for notes and references.

For questions of style not answered here, please refer to The Chicago Manual of Style, 14th ed. (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1993), or contact the BAP editorial office.

Tables and figures: should be prepared on separate sheets using originals where possible; they should not be included within the text. The author(s) should indicate clearly in the margin of the paper where tables and figures are to be inserted. Each table and figure should be numbered consecutively in Arabic numerals with an appropriate caption (e.g. Table 1, Table 2; Figure 1, Figure 2, and so on). Permission to reproduce copyright material must be obtained by the author(s) prior to submission and any acknowledgements should be included either in the text or the caption as appropriate. A camera ready copy of any tables and figures should be submitted in addition to those attached to the manuscripts.

Proofs: Authors are expected to correct and return proofs of accepted articles within 48 hours of receipt.

Offprints: Authors are entitled to 50 free offprints of their article and a copy of the issue in which their article appears. Offprints may take 3-4 weeks to deliver after publication.

Copyright: It is a condition of publication that authors vest copyright in their articles, including abstracts, in Taylor & Francis Ltd. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and the journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication providing that prior permission is obtained from Taylor & Francis Ltd. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
