IV. Remedies

President: Mrs. Elisabeth Isichei

Refusal of Economic Dependence (Policy of Raw Materials)

Mobilization of Resources

Use of Work Forces for the Profit of Those Providing It

Search for New Ideologies

Role and Range of Armed Struggles

Rethinking of the Applications of Science and Technology

Creation of Regional Unities

Information about a group flight to Kinshasa may be found on page 7 of the Newsletter.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR PROFESSOR DAMAS

Memorial services were held for Professor Leon Gontran Damas on Friday, January 27, 1978 at 12:00 noon in the Rankin Chapel at Howard University, Washington, D.C.

Damas, a distinguished poet and scholar, died Sunday, January 22, 1978. He was one of three persons responsible for the concept of Negritude along with Leopold Senghor and Aime Cesaire. His literary works include: Pigments, Poems negres sur des airs africains, Graffiti, Black Label and Nevralgies. His works have been published in eleven different languages and have been the subject of academic theses and dissertations.

A Memorial Fund has been set up in honor of Damas. Funds will be used to support a library at the Cultural Center-Leon Damas which is located in his hometown of Cayenne, French Guiana.

Robert J. Cummings, Ph.D.

Director

African Studies and Research Program

Howard University

PUBLICATIONS

"ALTERNATIVES TO POVERTY" is the first in the From Rhodesia to Zimbabwe series of pamphlets published by the Catholic Institute for International Relations. The purpose of the series is to help stimulate the discussion on some of the problems which will face the government of a liberated Zimbabwe. Future pamphlets in the series will include titles on land, health, manpower planning, agriculture, education, the law, and the role of women in the new Zimbabwe. Those interested in receiving future publication notices or in ordering the whole series, should write: CIIR, One Cambridge Terrace, London NW1, England.

THE ERITREAN RELIEF COMMITTEE, a non-for-profit, tax exempt organization, has a series of brochures available on the current status of the war-ravaged civilian population in Eritrea. Copies are available from the ERC, P.O. Box 1180, New York, New York 10017. Tel. (212) 866-4293.

FOLKLORE WOMEN'S COMMUNICATION (formerly Folklore Feminists Communication) is now edited by Marta Weigle. Contributions and communications about women's folklore and culture, women in folklore and mythology, women's speech, women folklorists, and the like are solicited. Short pieces (1-3 pp.) are preferred but not mandatory: abstracts of articles, bibliographic, film and record notes, field reports and observations, commentary, notes, queries, course outlines, announcements, items relevant to the women's section of the American Folklore Society, etc. Write: Marta Weigle, Folklore Women's Communication, P.O. Box 5653, Santa Fe, New Mexico 87502. A one year subscription (three issues) is $4.00.