

JEFF GUMOUR

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| GUEST EDITORIAL  | 1  |
| John Edwards   |           |
| THE RESPONSE TO DISASTER OF INDIVIDUALS AND FAMILIES WITHIN THEIR COMMUNITY  | 2  |
| Ruth Wraith and Rob Gordon   |           |
| The authors discuss three stages in the process of reaction to a natural disaster situation and identify the predominant experience as one of confusion.  |           |
| COMMUNITY RECOVERY FOLLOWING THE ASH WEDNESDAY BUSHFIRES   | 11 |
| John Hill, Helen Hill, Sue Gray  |           |
| The principles, planning and processes of disaster recovery management are explored by the authors. The authors identify 5 factors which are crucial to the effectiveness of recovery management. |           |
| SOME CONSIDERATIONS IN PLANNING FOR AND MANAGING COMMUNITY RECOVERY FOLLOWING DISASTER   | 13 |
| Kerry Gartland   |           |
| In this article the author analyses some effects of disaster and what needs to be done to assist effective recovery.  |           |
| PERSONAL AND FAMILY RESPONSES TO DISASTER: THE LONG TERM PERSPECTIVE   | 15 |
| Rob Gordon and Ruth Wraith   |           |
| The authors share observations of the way families cope with the multiple and conflicting demands of re-establishing lifestyles after the experience of a natural disaster.                       |           |
| "KILLING THE FIRE-DRAGON". RECOVERY FROM BUSHFIRES IN A SEMI-RURAL ENVIRONMENT   | 18 |
| Helen Hill   |           |
| A Community Development Officer shares her experience of working in a post-disaster setting.  |           |
| PERSONAL SERVICES ASSISTANCE AFTER THE SYDNEY FLOODS OF AUGUST 1986  | 22 |
| Allison Rowlands   |           |
| This report describes the implementation of the Personal Services aspect of the New South Wales Disaster Welfare Plan.  |           |
| THE MYTHS OF RESPONSE TO DISASTER BY PEOPLE AND COMMUNITIES  | 26 |
| Ruth Wraith and Rob Gordon   |           |
| The authors identify common myths of responses to disaster  |           |
| BOOK REVIEW WHEN DISASTER STRIKES  | 25 |
| Professor B. Raphael   |           |
| MAJOR NATURAL DISASTERS IN AUSTRALIA 1986-1987   |           |
| The contribution of the New South Wales Disaster Welfare Co-Ordinating Committee in providing access to Simon Kneebone's Cartoons is acknowledged with appreciation.                              |           |