Instructions for Contributors

1. All contributions should be submitted online at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/hepl>. Please send all general correspondence to Azusa Sato, Editorial Assistant, Health Economics, Policy and Law, LSE Health and Social Care, London School of Economics and Political Science, Houghton Street, London WC2A 2AE, United Kingdom (Email: hepl@lse.ac.uk).
2. Original research articles should be between 6,000 and 8,000 words, including tables and figures, with an accompanying abstract not exceeding 200 words. Contributors should note the journal's editorial policy, which is stated within the inside front cover.
3. Guest editorials will be invited pieces in which authors will provide a short, analytical commentary on a topical issue. The recommended length for guest editorials is 2,000 words. Some issues of the journal may also contain review articles (5,000 words) and debate essays (3,000 words). Review articles will feature a discussion of two or three books on a related theme while debate articles will assess an area within the scholarly disciplines or policies pertinent to health. For specific comments on the appropriateness of an idea for a review article, debate essay or a research article generally, please contact Adam Oliver at a.j.oliver@lse.ac.uk or Elias Mossialos at e.a.mossialos@lse.ac.uk
4. Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not been previously published and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and you will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of your paper.
5. All articles should be written in English (authors are responsible for any language editing required) and should follow the style sheet which contains detailed information on referencing, footnotes, spelling etc. The full style sheet may be found at: journals.cambridge.org/hepl or obtained from the Editorial Assistant (hepl@lse.ac.uk).
6. First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided they can return the corrected proofs within two days of receiving them.
7. Health Economics, Policy and Law endorses the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors' Uniform Requirements for Manuscripts Submitted to Biomedical Journals. Authors should familiarise themselves with the Uniform Requirements at www.ICMJE.org before submitting their manuscripts.
8. Authors of accepted articles will be supplied with two complimentary copies of the printed issue in which their contribution is published. Each contributor will also be provided with a copy of the PDF version of their article to create printed offprints.

Journal of Public Policy

Editors

Edward C. Page, London School of Economics, UK

Richard Rose, University of Aberdeen, UK

The Journal of Public Policy applies social science theories and concepts to significant political, economic and social issues and to the ways in which public policies are made. Its articles deal with topics of concern to public policy scholars in America, Europe, Japan and other advanced industrial nations. The journal often publishes articles that cut across disciplines, such as environmental issues, international political economy, regulatory policy and European Union processes. Its peer reviewers come from up to a dozen social science disciplines and countries across three continents, thus ensuring both analytic rigour and accuracy in reference to national and policy context.

Submitting a Proposal for a Themed Section

Social Policy and Society

A Journal of the Social Policy Association

1. Prospective Guest Editor(s) of a Themed Section should, in the first instance, contact the Managing Co-Editors, Hugh Bochel and Catherine Bochel, by e-mail to spseditors@lincoln.ac.uk to outline their idea.
2. Following an initial discussion, a proposal for a Themed Section should be submitted in Microsoft Word format by e-mail to spseditors@lincoln.ac.uk. This should include:
 - a. the envisaged title
 - b. the names and institutional affiliations of the proposed Guest Editor(s)
 - c. a brief outline of the rationale for the Themed Section
 - d. a list of contents (listing all of the contributors, the titles of each article and an abstract for each)
3. Proposals are then reviewed by the Editorial Board. Guest Editors whose proposals are subsequently accepted, will be invited to publish a Themed Section in the journal.
4. Themed Sections should contain the following:
 - a. An 'Introduction', usually written by the Guest Editor(s) providing a short introductory piece to the Themed Section
 - b. a set of peer reviewed articles - usually no more than six articles in total
 - c. a 'Review Article', which provides a selected review of the key literature
 - d. a short 'Some Useful Sources' guide to key sources in the area
5. The total word limit for an entire Themed Section is no more than 40,000 words. This is to include all tables, endnotes and bibliographies.
6. Each individual article must be no more than 5000 words in length and must conform to the Instructions for Contributors.
7. Upon acceptance of their proposal Guest Editor(s) will receive further detailed guidance from the Managing Co-Editors about their responsibilities e.g. the required refereeing process, production deadlines etc.

Journal of Social Policy

A Journal of the Social Policy Association

Editors

Tania Burchardt, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK

Hartley Dean, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK

The Journal of Social Policy carries high quality articles on all aspects of social policy in an international context. It places particular emphasis upon articles which seek to contribute to debates on the future direction of social policy, to present new empirical data, to advance theories, or to analyse issues in the making and implementation of social policies.

The Journal of Social Policy is part of the 'Social Policy Package' with Social Policy and Society.

Ageing & Society

Published for the Centre for Policy on Ageing and the British Society of Gerontology

Editor

Christina R. Victor, Brunel University, UK

Ageing & Society is an inter-disciplinary and international journal devoted to the understanding of human ageing and the circumstances of older people in their social and cultural contexts. It draws contributions and has readers from many academic social science disciplines, and from clinical medicine and the humanities. In addition to original articles, Ageing & Society publishes book reviews, occasional review articles and special issues.

Ageing & Society has now moved to online submissions. The entire review process is now being conducted through the Manuscript Central platform, including revisions and editorial assessments. If you wish to submit a paper to the journal please do so via the website.
