

notes for contributors

Manuscripts

The Editor welcomes the submission of materials for consideration as a main article or a review article. The approximate length required for main articles is 7,000 to 10,000 words, including notes. The Japanese Journal of Political Science is a refereed journal, and contributors should allow time for the process of refereeing to take place.

FIVE copies of the manuscript should be submitted to The Managing Editor, Japanese Journal of Political Science, Tokyo Satellite, University of Niigata Prefecture, 9th Floor, KS Building, 1-17-8 Nishikata, Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo 113-0024, Japan. Copies of the manuscript cannot be returned. Manuscripts should be printed only on one side of the paper and double spaced throughout. In addition, an abstract of no more than 150 words together with a brief profile (some 150 words) of the author should accompany the submission. The author's name and affiliation must not appear on the copies submitted, but only on a separate cover sheet. The desired location of tables and figures is to be indicated in the text, but all tables and figures are to be placed on separate sheets at the end of the article, following the notes and references. The manuscript can also be submitted as an email attachment to jjpeditorial@cambridge.org.

When an article has been accepted for publication, the author should send a final version on computer disk (IBM compatible) together with the hard copy typescript and provide details of the word processing software used (Word Perfect, Microsoft Word, Windows 95, 98, or 2000). All submissions must be typed in an unformatted Word document (no style is to be applied).

References and Notes

These are to be placed at the end of the submission, on separate sheets, and should be indicated serially within the article by superscript numerals. References should give full biographical details, including place of publication and the publisher, at first mention. Thereafter, the author's name and a short title should be used; op. cit. is not acceptable. A cross reference to the original citation (e.g., see n. 6 above) may also be added should the short title reference not be immediately clear. The title of articles should appear in single inverted commas, and the title of a book or journal should be in italics. Article and book titles in roman script are to be written as in the original. References and notes should be in the following form:

- 1 Robert Huckfeldt and John Sprague, Citizens, Politics and Social Communication (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 1995).
- 2 Ibid. p. 281.
- 3 T. J. Pempel and Keiichi Tsunekawa, 'Corporatism without Labor? The Japanese Anomaly', in Philippe

Schmitter and Gerhard Lehbruch (eds.), Trends towards Corporatist Intermediation (Beverly Hills: Sage Publications, 1979), pp. 23–26.

- 4 New York Times, 13 May, 1987.
- 5 Lester C. Thurow, Zero Sum, p. 24.

(The basic rule is that when Chinese, Korean and Japanese write in their respective language, then surname comes first and given name comes last, when Chinese, Korean and Japanese write in English, then the surname comes last and given name comes first.)

Subheadings

Contributors are encouraged to include up to two levels of subheading in articles to provide signposts for readers. These should be typed flush left, with only the first word and proper names written with an initial capital letter.

General

First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the editor a current address and guarantee to return the corrected proofs, by airmail or e-mail where appropriate, within three days of receiving them. Authors of articles and review articles will receive 20 free offprints. Additional copies may be ordered on the form provided which must be returned at proof stage.
