

Cambridge Review of International Affairs

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Roxane Farmanfarman, University of Cambridge, UK

MANAGING EDITOR

Alessandra Buonfino, University of Cambridge, UK

Cambridge Review of International Affairs aims to foster discussion about developing issues and theoretical approaches in the study of international relations. It does this by providing a forum for emerging scholars and practitioners of international affairs to present their ideas alongside those of more established academics. Through cutting-edge academic research, policy analysis and commentary, Cambridge Review of International Affairs offers fresh perspectives to current debates. In addition to publishing work by professional academics, the journal actively encourages officials in government, industry and NGOs to contribute articles which provide practical insights to scholarly discourse.

Central Asian Survey

EDITOR

Marie Bennigsen Broxup

ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Tamara Dragadze

Supported by an International Editorial Board

Central Asian Survey is the only established refereed journal in the world concerned primarily with the history, politics, cultures, religions and economics of the Central Asian and Caucasian regions. These include those territories and predominantly Muslim Irano-Turkic populations from western China to western Anatolia sharing a common historical, ethnic, cultural and linguistic heritage and in some cases communist experience. Foremost among these are the republics of former Soviet Central Asia, Azerbaijan, Crimea, and the Muslim Ibero-Caucasian and Turkic peoples of the North Caucasus, Middle Volga and Urals whose territories are included in the Russian Federation. Also covered are Chinese Xinjiang, Afghanistan, Iran, Turkey, Armenia and Georgia.

The recent unfolding of political, demographic, economic and military events which have precipitated new strategic linkages, raise the spectre of important local and regional change and make Central Asia and the Caucasus an area of significant contemporary interest. The journal includes a section on Mongolia and adjacent regions. There are deep historical connections between Mongolia and Central Asia and Mongolia's experience of analogous economic and political changes are relevant to readers of Central Asian Survey.

NATIONALITIES PAPERS is the only journal in the world which deals exclusively with all nationalities of the former USSR, and also with national minorities in Eastern and Central European countries. The problems and importance of over 140 million people are treated with the disciplinary and methodological contexts of Post-Soviet and Europe-Asia studies. Nationalities Papers is an international and multidisciplinary journal with contributors and readers throughout North America, Western and Eastern Europe, the Far East, Japan and the People's Republic of China. Included in each general issue are in-depth analyses from the historical view, updates on latest developments, some original documents, and book reviews; some issues concentrate on a region or nationality as a special topic, which exclusive focus allows for more extensive and detailed information.

Submission of manuscripts. Authors should send the final, revised version of their articles in both hard copy paper and electronic disk forms. It is essential that the hard copy (paper) version exactly matches the material on disk. Please print out the hard copy from the disk you are sending. Send as a Word or WordPerfect attachment to nmw@niu.edu or submit two printed copies of the final version with the disk to Steven Sabol, Nationalities Papers, Department of History, The University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Charlotte, NC 28223, USA. Save all files on a standard 3.5 inch high-density disk. We prefer to receive disks in Microsoft Word for Windows or WordPerfect, but can translate from most other common word-processing programs. Please specify which program you have used. Do not save your files as "text only" or "read only". For further details on Electronic Submission, please visit the Taylor & Francis Website at: <http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals>

Note to authors. Please make sure your contact address information is clearly visible on the outside of all packages you are sending to Editors.

Copyright. It is a condition of publication that authors vest copyright in their articles, including abstracts, in The Association for the Study of Nationalities. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and the journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication provided that prior permission is obtained from Taylor & Francis Ltd. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
