Journal of the International Phonetic Association

Published for the International Phonetic Association

Editor

Adrian P. Simpson, Friedrich-Schiller-Universitat Jena, Germany

The Journal of the International Phonetic Association (JIPA) is a forum for work in the fields of phonetic theory and description. As well as including papers on laboratory phonetics/phonology and related topics, the journal encourages submissions on practical applications of phonetics to areas such as phonetics teaching and speech therapy, as well as the analysis of speech phenomena in relation to computer speech processing. It is especially concerned with the theory behind the International Phonetic Alphabet and discussions of the use of symbols for illustrating the phonetic structures of a wide variety of languages. JIPA now publishes online audio files to supplement written articles.

Journal of Child Language

Editor

Heike Behrens, University of Basel, Switzerland

A key publication in the field, Journal of Child Language publishes articles on all aspects of the scientific study of language development and behaviour in children, the principles which underlie it, and the theories which may account for it. The international range of authors and breadth of coverage allow the journal to forge links between many different areas of research including psychology, linguistics, cognitive science, speech pathology and anthropology. The interdisciplinary and crosslinguistic perspective spans a wide range of interests: phonology, phonetics, morphology, syntax, vocabulary, semantics, pragmatics, sociolinguistics and other recognised aspects of language study. In addition to articles and brief research reports, the journal also features occasional review articles plus invited commentaries.

language teaching

Surveys and Studies

Editor

Graeme Porte, University of Granada, Spain

Language Teaching is the essential research resource for language professionals providing a rich and expert overview of research in the field of second-language teaching and learning. It offers survey articles on specific topics, languages and countries, and invites original research articles reporting on replication studies and meta-analyses. The journal also includes regional surveys of doctoral dissertations, topic-based research timelines and articles based on plenary conference speeches. Research-in-progress reports, themed book review articles and a list of publications received complement the content of each issue. A thorough peer-reviewing procedure applies to both the commissioned and the unsolicited articles. Language Teaching is also included in the all-time favourite Annual Review of Research.

Phonology

Editors

Colin J. Ewen, University of Leiden

Ellen M. Kaisse, University of Washington

Phonology, published three times a year, is the only journal devoted exclusively to the discipline, and provides a unique forum for the productive interchange of ideas among phonologists and those working in related disciplines.

Preference is given to papers which make a substantial theoretical contribution, irrespective of the particular theoretical framework employed, but the submission of papers presenting new empirical data of general theoretical interest is also encouraged.

The journal carries research articles, as well as book reviews and shorter pieces on topics of current controversy within phonology.

Editorial policy The Journal of Linguistics has as its goal to publish articles that make a clear contribution to current debate in theoretical linguistics. The language of submission and publication is English.

Preparation and submission of manuscripts Manuscripts should be formatted as for A4 paper (US 11" × 8.5") with margins of at least 3 cm (1.5") on all four sides, double-spaced and with a 12 pt font. PLEASE NOTE THAT ONLY PAPERS OF NO MORE THAN 60 DOUBLE-SPACED PAGES, INCLUDING REFERENCES AND FOOTNOTES, WILL NORMALLY BE ACCEPTED. If a longer manuscript is submitted for some particular reason, the covering note must state a case for an exception to this limit.

Authors should normally submit the manuscript as a PDF file to the Managing Editor by e-mail, with the main body of the e-mail message containing (i) the name(s) of the author(s) and full contact details; (ii) the full title of the paper; (iii) an abstract of about 200 words summarising the content of the paper; (iv) a statement about the length of the paper in page numbers. The published version of an article includes an abstract; all abstracts are sent to potential referees.

For the purpose of refereeing, the electronic copy of an article should be anonymous: the name(s) of the author(s) should not be included in the file and in the file's 'Properties' and, as far as possible, the author(s) should not be identifiable from the references in the text or the acknowledgements. All submitted papers will normally be read by three anonymous referees.

Accepted papers have to be formatted in accordance with the journal's style and submitted in a file (or files) compatible with PC/Windows/MS Word. The journal welcomes articles and book reviews formatted in (La)TeX although submissions in Word are preferable, especially when the text does not include complex AVMs and other objects which make LaTeX essentially indispensable.

The full set of notes for contributors is available from the journal's web page and from the Managing Editor.

Proofs will be presented as PDF files for the authors to correct. In the case of co-authored articles, the proofs will be sent to the first-named author, unless otherwise requested. Please inform the Managing Editor of any relevant changes of e-mail addresses occurring between the submission of the final version of the paper and the expected release of the proofs. The proofs should be corrected within three days of receipt and returned immediately. Detailed proofing instructions will be found with the proof.

THE LINGUISTICS ASSOCIATION OF GREAT BRITAIN

The Linguistics Association of Great Britain was founded in 1959 to promote the study of linguistics and to provide for its members both a forum for discussion and facilities for cooperation in furtherance of their interest in linguistics. The Association holds annual autumn meetings, at which original papers are presented in plenary sessions and in workshops devoted to special interests.

Persons interested in linguistics are eligible for election as members, subject to the approval of the Committee. Subscribing members may receive the Journal of Linguistics at a substantial discount. Application forms for membership may be obtained from the Membership Secretary, address as below.
