

CALL FOR PAPERS AND PARTICIPANTS
1987 Annual Meetings of the Western Finance Association
June 21–24, 1987
Hilton Hotel, Mission Bay, San Diego, CA

Members and friends of the Western Finance Association are invited to submit papers to be considered for presentation at the 1987 Annual Meetings. Papers on any topic related to financial economics will be considered.

Submission of Papers

Send four copies of the paper to the program chairman no later than November 25, 1986. Completed papers are preferable, but lengthy and detailed abstracts will be considered. Please attach a separate sheet indicating the author's name, affiliation, the title of the paper, and whether you would be willing to serve as a discussant or as a session chairman. All papers will be reviewed by the program committee. Authors will be notified of the committee's decision in early 1987.

Other Participants

Individuals willing to serve as session chairman or as discussants should write directly to the program chairman indicating their fields of interest.

Annual Awards for Best Papers

Treftz Award: This announcement is also a call for student papers to be considered for the Annual Treftz Award. This award consists of $500 and possible publication in the Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis. These papers should also be sent to the program chairman, indicating that they are student papers and should be considered for the Treftz Award.

American Association of Individual Investors Award: $1000 prize for the best paper in the field of investments. Paper must be considered for publication in the Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis. Authors should indicate whether they wish to compete for this prize.

To be considered for the program, all papers should be sent by November 25, 1986 to the program chairman:

Prof. Robert Litzenberger
Program Chairman, WFA
Dept. of Finance—Wharton School
University of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, PA 19104

Call for Papers

The second symposium on Recent Development in International Banking and Finance sponsored by the Graduate School of Management (GSM), University of California, Riverside will be held in April 1987 in Southern California.

GSM will consider papers on international banking/finance issues for presentation and subsequent publication in a book titled Recent Development in International Banking/Finance. The papers may be institutional or analytical in nature and should cover the following areas: bank asset/liability management; futures and options contracts and strategies; portfolio management; international asset pricing; developments in the international money and capital markets (e.g., swaps); the foreign exchange market; trade and project financing; risk assessment in an international environment; and related areas. Comprehensive and rigorous survey papers on the above issues are encouraged as well.

Papers submitted will be screened by UCR faculty and sent on for blind review by the editorial board.

The members of the Editorial board are: Michael Adler (Columbia); Bernard Dumas (Wharton); Gunter Dufey (University of Michigan); Donald Lessard (MIT); Richard Levich (NYU); Lemma Senbet (University of Wisconsin-Madison); Sarkis J. Khoury (UCR); Michael Granito (Morgan Guaranty & Trust Co.); and Jeffrey Hanna (Salomon Brothers).

The deadline for submitting papers is February 1, 1987.

Financial support will be available for academic authors whose papers have been accepted for presentation.

The papers will appear in a book edited by Sarkis J. Khoury of UCR and Alo Ghosh to be published by D.C. Heath and Company. The book will be published by December of each year.

Please send papers to:

JFQA Style Requirements

General Form

Manuscripts should be submitted in triplicate in finished form. Authors should pay special attention to the quality of their exposition. Submitted articles that are overly long, or poorly structured and are not fully developed, will be returned without review.

Manuscripts should contain a cover page with title and author's name and affiliation. The cover page will be removed before the manuscript is sent to a referee. The first page of text should show the title but not the author's name. A short one-paragraph abstract should be included. Manuscripts must be typed double-spaced and length should not exceed 25 pages. All sections of the manuscript should be enumerated with Roman numerals.

The manuscript should begin with both a statement of purpose and a guide to its organization. The manuscript should include its orientation with respect to other material published on the same subject, especially recently published material.

The manuscript should end with a summary statement of the main conclusions. Lengthy mathematical proofs and extensive, detailed tables should be placed in an appendix or omitted entirely. In the latter case, the author may indicate in a footnote that proofs or tables are available on request. The author should make every effort to explain the meaning of mathematical proofs.

The author should define all abbreviations used. The author also should check the text for clarity, grammar, spelling, and punctuation in order to minimize the number of editorial changes and the necessity for expensive corrections at the proof stage.

Footnotes

The form of footnotes should be consistent with the form currently found in the Journal. Footnotes should be placed at the end of the manuscript. Avoid footnotes with extensive content.

References

References must be numbered in an alphabetized list at the end of the article in the form currently found in the Journal. Cite references in the text by placing the appropriate reference number in brackets, e.g., [6].

Tables and Figures

Each table and figure should be numbered. The author should check the text to make sure there is a reference to each. The author should indicate by marginal notations the approximate placement of each table and figure.

The author should check tables to be sure that the totals in them are correct and that the heading, column headings, captions, etc., are sufficient to relieve the reader of the need to guess at their meaning.

Each figure should be on a separate sheet. Authors of accepted articles must provide camera-ready artwork for all figures. (Camera-ready means a professional drawing on white paper in India ink.)
