Membership
The Institute welcomes as members anyone who is interested in philosophy. There are branches in many regional centres, details of which are on the Institute’s website. In these branches, and at the London headquarters, an annual programme of lectures is arranged. Members receive copies of Philosophy but not the Supplements (see under Subscriptions below), but these are available to members at a 20% discount.

The annual subscription is £25.00, $45.00 in the USA and Canada. For full-time students and those registered as unemployed the subscription is £10.00 or $22.00. Applications should be made to the Secretary, Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London, WC1H 0HE or via the Institute’s website http://www.royalinstitutephilosophy.org.

Permission
This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 22 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, USA. Organizations in the USA who are registered with the CCC may therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of USA copyright law) subject to payment to the CCC of the per copy fee of $12.00. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes. Code 0031–8191/2015/$12.00.

Organizations authorized by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions. ISI Tear Sheet Service, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, USA, is authorized to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only. For all other use, permission must be sought from Cambridge or the American Branch of Cambridge University Press.

Subscriptions
Philosophy (ISSN 0031–8191) is published quarterly in January, April, July and October. The well-established RIP Lecture Series and collections of the papers delivered at the annual conference organized by the Royal Institute of Philosophy are published as Supplements to Philosophy and included in the institutional subscription price. Two supplementary volumes are published annually. An institutional subscription to Philosophy includes three issues of Think. The subscription price (excluding VAT) of volume 90, which includes print and electronic access, is £469.00 (US $846.00 in the USA, Canada and Mexico). Single parts cost £65.00 (US $123.00 in the USA Canada and Mexico). The electronic-only price available to institutions (excluding VAT at their country’s rate. VAT registered subscribers should provide their VAT registration number) is £319.00 (US $571.00 in the USA, Canada and Mexico). Prices include delivery by air. EU subscribers (outside the UK) who are not registered for VAT should add VAT at their country’s rate. VAT registered subscribers should provide their VAT registration number. Orders, which must be accompanied by payment, may be sent to any bookseller or subscription agent or direct to the publisher: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfillment Department, UPH, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 8BS, UK; or in the USA, Canada and Mexico: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfillment Department, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, New York, NY 10994–2133, USA. Japanese prices for institutions are available from Kinokuniya Company Ltd, PO Box 55, Chitose, Tokyo 156, Japan.

Periodicals postage is paid at New York, NY and at additional mailing offices.

POSTMASTER: send address changes in USA, Canada and Mexico to Cambridge University Press, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, New York, NY 10994–2133, USA.

Electronic Policy of Philosophy

The electronic policy of the journal pursues the aims of the Institute: to promote the study of philosophy in all its branches: logic, metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, aesthetics, social and political philosophy and the philosophies of religion, science, history, language, mind and education. The Institute is not editorially selective and its membership is not restricted to those with special qualifications in philosophy. Contributors are expected to avoid all needless technicalities.

Instructions for Contributors
Prospective authors should email their contributions as .doc files (not pdfs) to assistant@royalinstitutephilosophy.org

Authors should observe the conventions of the journal. The Editor will alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to journal style.

Quotation marks
Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another.
E.g. ‘He cried out “one should only use double quotation marks”’, and stormed off.
Unless the punctuation is an integral part of the quotation, it should be outside the quotation marks.
E.g. She looked up and asked “Lake this?”
He nodded and replied ‘yes, that’s exactly right’.

Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks. Scape quotes should be in single quotation marks.
Italics
The titles of books and journals should be in italics.
Foreign words and phrases should be in italics.
E.g. ‘reductio ad absurdum’ and ‘a priori’.

Hyphens, en-rules, em-rules
En-rules should be used for parentheses, rather than em-rules.
E.g. ‘en-rules are—according to Hart’s rules—the most appropriate for London journals.’
NOT ‘en-rules are according to Hart’s rules—the most appropriate for London journals.’
En-rules should be used to indicate ranges, rather than hyphens.
E.g. ’136–234’ NOT ’135–234’

Footnotes
Notes and references will be printed as footnotes. Citations should also be given as footnotes and should appear as follows.
3. Ope in note 1, 101–112

NOTE—do not include ‘pp.’ or ‘p.’ to indicate pages.

Structure
Sub-sections should be headed with Arabic rather than Roman numerals.

Abstracts should appear at the start of articles, and should be between 100 and 200 words in length. At the end of articles, the author’s biographical note will be inserted. This will include the author’s name, email (unless otherwise stipulated by the author), and a couple of sentences detailing research interests and recent publications.

SEBASTIEN WINSTANLEY (winstanley@bies.ac.uk) is Professor of Philosophy at the British Institute of Ephemeral Studies. His recent publications include The Disappearance of Nothingness (Avarena Press, 2011) and Death, My Friend (Maribunda, 2011).

Only corrections of typesetter’s errors can be allowed in proofs. Authors are therefore asked to send any alterations or additions to a Professor O’Hear as soon as possible after receiving his letter of acceptance.

Authors of articles, discussion papers and reviews articles will receive a pdf reprint free of charge. Print offprints may be purchased from the publisher if ordered at proof stage. Authors will also receive a copy of the issue in which their article appears.

Books for review should be sent to the Editor at the Institute and not to Cambridge University Press. Publishers are asked to note that non-philosophical works are not reviewed in Philosophy.

Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyright (on certain conditions) to the Royal Institute of Philosophy so that their interest may be safeguarded.

Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used both in print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

Authors’ corrected proofs should be sent via email to assistant@royalinstitutephilosophy.org.
