

RUSSIA: TSARIST AND COMMUNIST

by Anatole G. Mazour

In chronological sequence, Professor Mazour carefully develops the history and culture of Russia from the appearance of the Varangians and Mongols to the present-day Communist regime. One pre-publication reviewer says of this revised edition of Mazour's Russia: Past and Present, "The exposition is at times brilliant and quite rewarding, as for example in the account of the growth of ideological and social theories in the 19th century. One of its principal merits is clarity of expression." 975 pages, April 1962.

THE SOVIET CRUCIBLE The Soviet System in Theory and Practice

ed. by Samuel Hendel

"One of America's brilliant younger Sovietologists herewith presents a one-volume encyclopedia on Russian social, political and economic life." Paul M. A. Linebarger, in World Affairs. 1959, 594 pages, text ed. $6.75.

Particular attention is given to Soviet relations with Asian countries in this revised and expanded third edition of a popular textbook, which introduces students to the political and cultural history of the Russian people. 506 pages, $6.50, 1961.

AN INTRODUCTION TO RUSSIAN HISTORY and CULTURE

by Ivar Spector

ANVIL BOOKS

Under the General Editorship of Louis L. Snyder

- No. 7. MARX AND THE MARXISTS by Sidney Hook
- No. 16. RUSSIAN REVOLUTIONS OF 1917 by John S. Curtiss
- No. 24. BASIC HISTORY OF MODERN RUSSIA by Hans Kohn
- No. 47. SOVIET FOREIGN POLICY, 1917-1941 by George F. Kennan
- No. 50. RISE AND FALL OF THE ROMANOVYs by Anatole G. Mazour

$1.25 each

D. VAN NOSTRAND COMPANY, INC.

120 Alexander St.

Princeton, N.J.

FROM THE EDITOR

Future Discussion sections will deal with:

June 1962

“The Structure and Organization of the Soviet Economy”

Gregory Grossman

Commentaries: Henri Chambre, David Granick

September 1962

“The Development of Contemporary Russian Literature”

Hugh McLean

Commentaries: Rufus Mathewson, Gleb Struve

Contributions in forthcoming issues will include:

John Mersereau, Jr., “Lermontov’s Shtoss: Hoax or Literary Credo?”

Richard Wortman, “Koshelev, Samarin, and Cherkasskii and the Fate of Liberal Slavophilism”

Joseph Rothschild, “The Military Background of Pilsudski’s Coup d’État”

Edgar Anderson, “The Soviet Union Trades With a Small Neighbor: A Case Study of the Latvian-Soviet Treaty of 1927”

Stevan K. Pavlowitch, “Early Nineteenth-Century Serbia in the Eyes of British Travelers”

Charles Jelavich, “The Importance of the Leksikografski Zavod (Zagreb) to the Scholar”

Nikolay Andreyev, “Recent Soviet Studies of Russian History and Culture Before 1462”

As noted in the October 1961 issue, the policy of this journal is to maintain some kind of balance between social sciences and humanities, Russia and Eastern Europe, past and present, in the subjects treated in each issue, but the basis for acceptance and rejection is first and foremost the quality of the manuscript submitted.

Contributors are asked to observe the procedure set forth on page 350 of the October 1961 issue.

ALWAYS BOOKS THAT MATTER
FROM PRAEGER

IDEOLOGY AND POWER IN SOVIET POLITICS

By ZBIGNIEW K. BRZEZINSKI. Five outstanding essays by an eminent specialist on Soviet-bloc affairs, linked by a common theme: the interrelationship of ideology and power in domestic and international Communist politics. 188 pages $4.50 cloth, $1.75 paper

RUSSIA UNDER KHRUSHCHEV

An Anthology from Problems of Communism

Edited by ABRAHAM BRUMBERG. Articles from a noteworthy periodical devoted to Soviet studies, documenting and analyzing the period of upheaval since Stalin's death. 660 pages $8.75 cloth, $2.50 paper

THE SOVIET UNION AT THE UNITED NATIONS

An Analysis of Diplomatic Strategy and Tactics

By ALEXANDER DALLIN. An assessment of the place of the United Nations in over-all Soviet world strategy by a foremost specialist on Soviet foreign policy, with an analysis of the prospects for a new phase of Soviet policy at the U.N. approx. 250 pages $5.75 cloth, $1.95 paper

REVISIONISM: Essays on the History of Marxist Ideas

Edited by LEOPOLD LABEDZ. The initial volume in the new Library of International Studies, this is the first book to deal comprehensively with the history of ideas associated with Marxist movements, providing a historical perspective for various reinterpretations of the original doctrine. approx. 400 pages $7.95

SOVIET MAN AND HIS WORLD

By KLAUS MEHNERT. A brilliant full-dimensional portrait of life in the Soviet Union today by one of Europe's foremost experts on Soviet politics and literature. 320 pages $5.95

UNITY AND CONTRADICTION

Major Aspects of Sino-Soviet Relations

Edited by KURT L. LONDON. Twenty Soviet-affairs specialists debate the issue of co-existence between the U.S.S.R. and China, covering the ideological and organizational aspects, territorial friction, agriculture, political and economic relations of the Communist countries—within the bloc and with Yugoslavia and the African and Asian nations. approx. 500 pages $7.50

MARXISM: An Historical and Critical Study

By GEORGE LIGHTHEIM. "A tour de force of scholarly achievement."—The Washington Post-Times Herald. "The author has put scholars under a considerable debt with this pioneering effort."—The Economist. 432 pages $8.50

THE GRAND TACTICIAN: Khrushchev's Rise to Power

By LAZAR PISTRAK. "The best of the biographies of Khrushchev."—Merle Fainsod, in the New York Herald Tribune Book Review. 296 pages $6.00

For a complete list of the books in Soviet studies, including the Praeger Paperbacks, write to the publisher.

FREDERICK A. PRAEGER, Publisher
64 University Place, New York 3, N.Y.