Theatre Survey

Published for the American Society for Theatre Research

Editor

Harvey Young, Northwestern University, USA

Theatre Survey is chartered by the American Society for Theatre Research as a theatre history journal. Published three times a year, Theatre Survey provides rigorous historical and theoretical studies of performance across all periods, cultures, and methodologies; letters to the Editor; book reviews; lists of books received; and essays on new theatrical resources and exhibits. Recent issues have included position-pieces on theatre history and historiography in the New Millennium; and the subjects of other articles have ranged from postmodern Shakespearean production (on stage and in film) to the Kabuki theatre; from medieval performance to the New Orleans Mardi Gras; and from issues of race, class, and colonialism in performance to studies of John Rich's Covent Garden account books.

Tempo

Editors

Christopher Fox, Brunel University, UK

Juliet Fraser, London, UK

TEMPO exists to document the international new music scene while contributing to, and stimulating, current debates therein. Its emphasis is on musical developments in our own century, as well as on music that came to prominence in the later twentieth century that has not yet received the attention it deserves. The articles and reviews cover the new music scene in all its complexity, featuring discussion of compositional trends, performance practices, listening practices, new music contexts and reception histories. TEMPO is sympathetic both to writing about new forms of creative practice (electronic, interdisciplinary, performance-based) and to writing that employs innovative methods of enquiry that differ from the aims of traditional musicology.

Twentieth-Century Music

Editors

Robert Adlington, University of Nottingham, UK

Julian Johnson, Royal Holloway, University of London, UK

Twentieth-Century Music disseminates research on all aspects of music in the long twentieth century to a broad readership. Emphasis is placed upon the presentation of the full spectrum of scholarly insight, with the goal of fostering exchange and debate between disciplinary fields. Individual issues may address a single theme, or encompass diverse topics and musical repertoires of current import. Our reviews section offers agenda-setting responses to newly published work.

Cambridge Opera Journal

Editors

Stefanie Tcharos, University of California, Santa Barbara, USA
Benjamin Walton, University of Cambridge, UK

For over twenty years the Cambridge Opera Journal has been the pre-eminent forum for scholarship on opera in all its manifestations. The Journal publishes essays not only on all aspects of the European operatic tradition, but also on American opera and musical theatre, on non-Western music theatres, on contemporary opera production, and on the theory and historiography of opera. Carefully researched and often illustrated with music examples and pictures, articles adopt a wide spectrum of critical approaches. As well as major articles, each issue includes reviews of recent important publications in the field.

Nineteenth-Century Music Review

Editor

Bennett Zon, Durham University, UK

Nineteenth-Century Music Review aims to locate music within the widest possible framework of intellectual activity pertaining to the long nineteenth century (c.1789–1914). It particularly welcomes interdisciplinary scholarship that explores music within the context of other artistic and scientific discourses. Articles with fine visual or iconographic content are encouraged, as are those rich in musically illustrative material. Articles accepted for publication will reflect a diversity of critical viewpoints.

All material submitted for consideration will receive open-minded editorial attention, and works, once accepted for peer review, will proceed anonymously to at least two readers (one from the editorial board, the other external to it). Books and music will be reviewed extensively in each issue with the particular aim of extending awareness of music literature into extra-musical disciplines.

Notes for contributors

Editorial policy

Theatre Research International publishes articles on theatre practices in their social, cultural, and historical contexts, their relationship to other media of representation, and to other fields of inquiry. The journal seeks to reflect the evolving diversity of critical idioms prevalent in the scholarship of differing world contexts.

1 SUBMISSIONS Articles in English of 4000–7000 words (inclusive of notes) should be submitted online via journals.cambridge.org/jid_TRI. Click “Submit Your Article” and follow instructions. Be ready to provide author details, article title, article abstract (150 words), keywords, and funding details (where relevant). An electronic copy of the manuscript in WORD, excluding author identifiers, can then be uploaded, along with additional documents such as images and author bio(s). Administrative queries can be directed to the Assistant Editor, Dr Sarah Balkin, at admin.tri@cambridge.org. The Senior Editor, Dr Paul Rae, can be contacted at editor.tri@cambridge.org.

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any materials, including photographs and illustrations for which they do not hold copyright.

2 MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION The recommended length for articles is 4000–7000 words (inclusive of notes). An electronic copy of the manuscript in WORD should be submitted to the above email address. The author’s name, address, email address, and title of manuscript should appear on a cover sheet. An abstract of no more than 150 words should also be included as well as a brief biography.

3 BOOK REVIEWS: Publishers and Reviewers should approach the nearest Review Editor. Email information and areas of responsibility are listed on the Inside Front Cover.

Text Conventions

- 1 Articles must be typed and double-spaced throughout. Quotations and Notes are also double-spaced. Do not exceed 35 lines per page, nor 70 characters per line.
- 2 Leave margins of 1" (25mm) at right, top and bottom, and a larger margin of 1.11" (40mm) on left.
- 3 Italicize titles of books, newspapers, journals.
- 4 Titles of articles are given in single quotation marks.
- 5 Notes are indicated by raised Arabic numerals (without any other sign) at the end of the sentence, following any punctuation.¹ Notes are numbered in sequence throughout the article.²
- 6 Use English (Oxford) spelling for your own text, but give the original spelling in quotations (archaic, American...).
- 7 Write ... ize and ... ization. Not ... ise, ...isation.
- 8 No full stop after Dr, Mr, Mrs, and similar abbreviations ending with the same letter as the full form. Other abbreviations take the full stop (Esq., p.m.,...), except capitals used in abbreviations of journals (PMLA, TLS) or of organizations (UNESCO).
- 9 For dates, use only the form 15 May 1985.
- 10 Write out in full ‘do not’, ‘will not’, etc.
- 11 Use minimal numerals: 1985–6, 1888–92, 141–2, but 13–15, 111–19.
- 12 Write: ‘ninety nine spectators’, but ‘101 fans’.
- 13 “Act III, sc. v, lines 35–51” becomes after a quotation: (III,v: 35–51). For volume, or part, use roman numerals: I, II....
- 14 Write centuries in full. Hyphenate the adjectival use: “seventeenth-century drama”, but “the theatre in the seventeenth century....”
- 15 Seventies or 1970s (no apostrophe).

16 Possessive case: as a rule, write ’s.

17 Do not forget to number your pages.

18 Illustrations are indicated in the text thus: (Fig. 1). When submitting illustrations, please include comprehensive captions, drawing the reader’s attention to the important features of each picture. It is your responsibility to obtain permission for the reproduction in TRI of photographic or other illustrative materials. List the captions at the end of your document, prefaced by ‘Fig. 1’, etc. The captions should refer to the text and NOT list simply character names, etc. Photographers must be credited.

19 If in doubt, please refer to the latest issue of TRI.

20 NOTES/REFERENCES: Make all references in endnotes according to the following conventions:
