Leiden Journal of International Law

Firmly established as one of Europe’s leading journals in the field, Leiden Journal of International Law (LJIL) provides a forum for two vital areas, namely international legal theory and international dispute settlement. It is unique in providing the most comprehensive coverage of the world’s most important international tribunals in The Hague and elsewhere (such as the ICTY, ICTR, ICC and others), as well as examining new trends in international legal thinking. LJIL is essential reading for academics and practitioners who need to stay abreast of recent developments in these areas.

SUBSCRIPTIONS
Leiden Journal of International Law (ISSN 0922-1565) is published quarterly in March, June, September and December. Four parts form a volume. The subscription price which includes delivery by air where appropriate (but excluding VAT) of volume 23 (2010), which includes print and electronic access, is £132.00 (US$211.00 in USA, Canada and Mexico) for institutions; £51.00 (US$84.00 in USA, Canada and Mexico) for individuals, which includes print only. Students ordering direct from the agent or direct to the publisher: Cambridge University Press, Cambridge or from the US branch of Cambridge University Press. Additional postage is £7.00 (US$11.00 in USA, Canada and Mexico) plus postage. EU subscribers (outside the UK) who are not registered for VAT should add VAT at their country’s rate. VAT registered members should provide their VAT registration number. Japanese prices for institutions (including ASP delivery) are £95.00 (US$172.50) single parts or £31.00 (US$51.00 in USA, Canada and Mexico) for personal use.
