POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY

From the University of Wales Press

Nietzsche

On Theognis of Megara

Edited by Renato Cristi and Oscar Velásquez

“This volume encourages readers to reassess the deepest political implications of Nietzsche's earliest philological studies. Clearly written and well argued, Cristi has produced a study that is at once useful and disturbing. His findings may not meet with universal approval, but they cannot be ignored.”—James Porter, University of California, Berkeley

Cloth $145.00

Kant's Political Legacy

Human Rights, Peace, Progress

Luigi Caranti

This volume presents an informed and original reading of Kant's work as applied to key questions relating to contemporary issues.

Cloth $150.00

From Pluto Press

Solidarity without Borders

Gramscian Perspectives on Migration and Civil Society

Edited by Óscar García Agustín and Martin Bak Jørgensen

“This book makes a convincing case for the relevance of the neo-Gramscian framework to be employed, especially in the study of transnational migration.”—Hong Kong Review of Books

Paper $34.00

Reconstructing Karl Polanyi

Gareth Dale

“No one digs deeper than Dale into Polanyi’s mindset, into his politics as well as his scholarship.”—Chris Hann, Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology

Paper $34.00

The Review of Politics

INSTRUCTIONS TO CONTRIBUTORS

AIMS AND SCOPE. The Review of Politics publishes primarily philosophical and historical studies of politics, especially those concentrating on political theory and American political thought. The journal also includes thoughtful scholarly reflections on all aspects of politics—including analysis of institutions and techniques, international relations, comparative politics, literary reflections on politics or political interpretations of literature.

MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION AND REVIEW.

To submit a manuscript for consideration please send an electronic file (formatted in MS Word):

http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cup/rop

Complete instructions are provided on the website. Authors uncomfortable with online submission may send their manuscript as an email attachment to rop.editor.1@nd.edu.

The entire manuscript, including notes and quotations, should be double-spaced.

Author anonymity. Because manuscripts are evaluated anonymously they should not bear the author’s name or institutional affiliation. Please remove all references or acknowledgments that might indicate the identity of the author.

Abstract and keywords. All article submissions should include an abstract of 100-150 words.

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION AND STYLE. The Review of Politics follows the Chicago Manual of Style for standards of citation, punctuation, and other editorial considerations.

Figures and tables. Appendices, tables, and figures should be numbered consecutively throughout the article and be included on separate pages appearing after the reference section. Each figure must be submitted electronically as a separate file. Electronic versions should submitted as 1200 dpi TIFF or EPS files at 100% of a suitable final size. Charts, graphs, or other artwork should be professionally rendered and computer generated.

COPYEDITING AND PAGE PROOFS. The publisher reserves the right to copyedit and proofread all articles accepted for publication. Page proofs of an article will be sent to the lead author of an article for correction of typographical errors only; authors must notify the publisher or the editorial office of any changes within 72 hours of receipt of proof or approval will be assumed.

COPYRIGHT TRANSFER AGREEMENT. Papers with multiple authors are reviewed with certain specified rights reserved by the author, must be signed and returned to the Editor with certain specified rights reserved by the author, must be signed and returned to the Editor by senior authors of accepted manuscripts, prior to publication. The Review of Politics does not accept manuscripts for review that are under consideration and have not been simultaneously submitted elsewhere, previously published, or previously accepted for publication.

MANUSCRIPT LENGTH. Normal length of published manuscripts is 8,000-11,000 words.

The Review of Politics publishes primarily philosophical and historical studies of politics, especially those in political theory and American political thought. The journal also includes thoughtful scholarly reflections on all aspects of politics—laws, and institutions, international relations, comparative politics—as well as literary reflections on politics or political interpretations of literature.
