EUROPEAN POLITICAL SCIENCE REVIEW

"In one short year, the EPSR has established itself as one of the best outlets for innovative political research anywhere – not just in Europe, and not just about Europe. Its mixture of thoughtful essays and original research reports makes it a pleasure to read and learn from."

SIDNEY TARROW, CORNELL UNIVERSITY

International Journal of Law in Context

A global forum for interdisciplinary legal studies

The International Journal of Law in Context now features an exciting new section entitled 'Law in other contexts'. This section is dedicated to making available specially commissioned reports of socio-legal research in places where English is not the first language. In this way the journal hopes to bring attention to work which may not be easily accessible to those without knowledge of the relevant language (and culture).

Journal of African Law

Published for SOAS, University of London

The Journal of African Law has been in existence for over 55 years and in that time has followed changing trends in law and legal reform. The earlier focus on legal pluralism and customary law has evolved to include a focus on issues of international law, post conflict resolution, constitutionalism and commercial law.

In recent years the journal has published articles on the Sharia debate in Nigeria, the new constitutional dispensation in Southern Sudan and case notes including on the rights of indigenous peoples under the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights. The Journal welcomes articles on all legal issues pertaining to the African continent in its entirety.

Legal Theory

Editors

Matthew D. Adler, Duke University, USA

Larry Alexander, University of San Diego Law School, USA

David O. Brink, University of California, San Diego, USA

Scott J. Shapiro, Yale Law School, USA

Legal Theory draws contributions not only from academic law, but from a wide range of related disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, including philosophy, political science, economics, history and sociology. Topics covered fall mainly into the broad categories of analytical and normative jurisprudence, doctrinal theory, policy analyses of legal doctrines and critical theories of law.

Leiden Journal of International Law

Published for The Foundation of the Leiden Journal of International Law

Editors-in-Chief

Carsten Stahn, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Eric de Brabandere, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Firmly established as one of Europe's leading journals in the field, the Leiden Journal of International Law (LJIL) provides a forum for two vital areas, namely international legal theory and international dispute settlement. It is unique in providing the most comprehensive coverage of the world's most important international tribunals in The Hague (such as the ICJ, ICTY, ICC and others) and elsewhere, as well as examining new trends in international legal thinking. LJIL is essential reading for academics and practitioners who need to stay abreast of recent developments in these areas.
