Organised Sound

Alternative Histories of Electronic Music
INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

AIMS AND SCOPE
Organised Sound is a fully peer-reviewed scholarly journal focusing on the rapidly developing methods and issues arising from the use of contemporary technology in fields such as multimedia, performance art, sound sculpture and electroacoustic composition. It is a forum for music scholars, composers, performers, computer specialists, mathematicians and engineers to share the results of their research that affect musical issues. Young researchers will be particularly encouraged. Contributors are encouraged to submit sound examples and multimedia material for the online version of the journal.

SUBMISSION
Submission of a paper to Organised Sound is held to imply that it represents an original contribution not previously published and that it is not being considered elsewhere. Papers are reviewed by at least two referees. Papers should be submitted by email to os@dmu.ac.uk. Letters to the Editor

RIAD
Organised Sound
De Montfort University, Chestraf Building, Leicester LE5 6EU, UK, 32 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10013-2473, Cambridge University Press, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 8BS, UK, and in the USA, Canada and Mexico: Cambridge University Press, 32 James Street, London, W1Y 4BU (for individuals). The society is a not-for-profit educational organization established to promote the responsible presentation of contemporary technology in fields such as multimedia, performance art, sound sculpture and electroacoustic composition.

We welcome and encourage submissions from organisations and individuals doing original research in any area of sound and music, and from all parts of the world. Sound and movie examples for the online version should be clearly laid out on separate pages, numbered consecutively, and appropriate, within four days of receipt. Contributors should correct their proofs carefully, and return them to the editor within 8 working days. First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that any corrections remain in the text.

INFORMED CONSENT
Following the guidance set out in the Declaration of Helsinki, authors should be asked to confirm their agreement to the following: (i) their submission is original, (ii) that all contributors to the paper have agreed to its submission, (iii) that they have obtained written informed consent from any human subjects or animals if necessary, and (iv) that they have disclosed any financial interests or other conflicts of interest. The editor will require authors to provide a signed form confirming their agreement to these terms before the paper can be published.
